Woman dies in 'freak' accident

Clermont resident run over in her own driveway

BY GEOFF BELCHER
News Editor

A Clermont Harbor woman died in her own driveway Thursday morning in what witnesses and authorities alike can call only a "freak accident."

Kay Marilyn Malkowski Lee, 59, was apparently helping her husband Bill work on their pickup truck at their home at Look and Third streets at Clermont.

Witnesses say Bill was working under the hood of the truck as his wife sat in the cab with the door open. What happened next is anybody's guess, according to the Lees' neighbor Jason Caspolich, but somehow the truck was put into reverse, shot down off the blocks and threw Marilyn Lee out of the cab, running over her.

The vehicle stopped when it rammmed into another neighbor's car.

"It's the craziest thing I've ever seen ...," Caspolich said just a few minutes after the accident Thursday.

Caspolich said he had just walked by the couple's house and said hello a minute before the accident, and when he looked back, the vehicle was moving and "threw her out of the driver's seat and ran right

CSX plans to idle trains for four-day construction

Manufacturers bracing for massive shutdown, say they're all ready

BY ED LEPOMA

The familiar sound of trains rumbling through Waveland and Bay St. Louis won't be heard for four days this coming July.

At a meeting of the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission Monday, Executive Director Hal Walters revealed CSX Railroad plans to shut down 300 miles of rail line from New Orleans to Birmingham July 2 through July 6 to repair tracks and bridges. It would be the first-ever massive shutdown for the major rail hauler.

Walters told Commissioners Port and Harbor Operations Manager Greg Deakle has been working with manufacturing tenants at Port Bienville in efforts to offset any impact from the shutdown.

The shutdown will idle between 120 to 150 trains, and the repair project will require several hundred

Crash at Hwy. 90/Lower Bay

Emergency workers pull an injured woman out of a wreck at Hwy. 90 and Lower Bay Rd. Thursday. Mississippi Hwy. Patrol Information Officer Sgt. Joe Gazzo said the wreck happened when Geraldine L. Hill, 57, of Bay St. Louis, collided with a vehicle driven by Pamela S. Brou, 47, also of Bay St. Louis, as Brou made a left turn across 90. Hill's vehicle then careened into a car driven by Lucy C. Randall, 50, of Lakeshore. Hill and her passenger were both treated at Gulfport Memorial Hospital. Brou suffered a broken leg and was transported to Hancock Medical Center. Randall was uninjured.

Health Dept.: Swimming pool tablets not good for wastewater, despite use

BY ED LEPOMA
Staff Writer

The Mississippi Department of Health and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency are concerned some rural residents in Hancock County are using the wrong product in their private wastewater treatment.

Due to high ground water levels and silt or clay soil, several hundred thousand homes in the rural and suburban areas of the Gulf Coast states have a small wastewater treatment system which discharges directly into waterways or drainage ditches.

The final step in these home treatments units is to kill bacteria with specialized chlorine tablets.

The EPA and local health authorities say they are concerned that most homeowners are using chlorine tablets made for swimming pools, not wastewater treatment, which is a violation of federal law.

"Using the wrong type of tablet contributes significantly to pathogenic bacteria in area waterways," the agencies said. "Using the wrong type of tablet for wastewater disinfecting can also lead to the spread of disease and under some circumstances, a fire or explosion," according to the agencies.

The Mississippi state Health Department regulations governing individual on-site wastewater disposal requires that "individuals on-site wastewater disposal systems that utilize surface land application for final disposal shall have an approved effluent disinfection provided."

The regulation further advises that "The chlorine tablets must be wastewater grade chlorine." The agencies said swimming pool chlorine should not be used because it is very stable and does not break down rapidly and may enter streams.

Calcium hypochlorite tablets, such as Norweco's Bio-Sanitizer tablets, are the only readily available product labeled and approved for wastewater disinfection, the agency said.

The tablets are very reactive and quickly kill 99 percent of bacteria present in wastewater within the first 10 minutes of treatment.

Diamondhead, Bay-Waveland host state Garden Clubs of Mississippi convention

The Diamondhead Garden Club and the Bay-Waveland Garden Club cohosted the Garden Clubs of Mississippi, Inc. State Convention April 18-19 at the Ramada Inn in Diamondhead.

The convention marked the passing of the gavel from President Bonnie Borne (Oxford Garden Club) to Melanie Gousset (Grenada Garden Club).

New state officers and district directors were installed, and state and national awards were presented at an April 19 luau at Diamondhead Country Club.

Other events included a workshop given by Col. Robert Crear, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers-Vicksburg, on the Corps' task of monitoring the Mississippi River.

On April 18, a youth awards luncheon at the Diamondhead Country Club honored those clubs sponsoring youth activities.

This was followed by a tour of historic Bay St. Louis and a buffet dinner hosted by the Bay-Waveland Garden Club at the Our Lady of the Gulf Parish Center.

April 19 highlights were a floral design luncheon presented by flower show judges from around the state at the Diamondhead Country Club, capped by the gala luau.

Apartments may be key to lower sewer rates

BY ED LEPOMA
Staff Writer

The chairman of Hancock County's Water and Sewer District says additional apartment complexes might be the key to lowering monthly sewerage rates.

At a recessed meeting of the district Thursday, Al Smith said come Clermont Harbor residents were not informed of negotiations that went on between the district and developers of the Waverly Apartments before an accord was reached on a monthly fee for providing sewerage service to the 128-unit apartment complex, which is now taking applications for tenants.

Smith reacted after District 1 Supervisor Jeep Ladner showed up at the meeting to say he has had numerous calls from Lakeshore constituents, who read a previous article in the Echo in which the district voted to access a $25 monthly charge for sewerage to those tenants living in any of the 20 one-bedroom apartments in the Waverly. All other residences serviced by the district pay $35-a-month for sewerage.

Smith later explained that the $25 suggested monthly fee was what the district told the developers they could include in the rental price for a one-bedroom unit. Rather than collect from each unit, Smith said the owners of the complex will be sent a monthly bill of $4,430.

He said the fee was arrived at by flow predictions based on full occupancy of all 128-apartments. The complex also includes two- and three-bedroom units.

"They'll still pay the monthly fee even if they have some apartments vacant," Smith said.

The 128-unit apartment complex is the first large-scale living facility to be serviced by the Hancock Water and Sewer District. There are 14 apartment buildings on the 15.2-acre tract, and amenities include a large swimming pool. The complex is located off state Hwy. 603 on Old Nicholson Road, and a sales office is now open taking tenant applications.

Smith said before arriving at the monthly charge, the district also took into consideration the fact that the developers spent thousands of dollars to sewer the facility and paid a deposit and service fee of $19,480 to tap into the district's sewerage system. He said the developers will also maintain the system, so there will be no future maintenance expense to the district.

At last week's meeting, a small but vocal group of representatives from the Clermont Harbor Civic Association presented the district a resolution they passed challenging the $10 discount. The resolution said, "It is inherently unfair to alter fees for special projects such as an apartment complex and at the same time charge a larger fee to the citizens who not only live in houses and trailers, but who also pay property taxes to Hancock County."

The district voted to have its attorney, state Rep. J.P. Compretta, write to get an opinion from the state attorney general on the discount controversy.

Smith later said, "We hope to service more large-scale apartment complexes. That's money in the bank we can count on monthly and not worry about collections, billing or maintenance. Somewhere down the line, it might enable us to lower monthly residential fees for everybody."

In other business Thursday, the district received seven bids on plans to extend the sewerage system off Clermont Harbor Boulevard to the new Lakes Subdivision, a 30-lot community being developed by Maurice Colly.

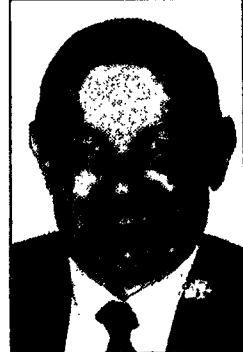

The bid package also included extending sewerage to an area off Jourdan River Drive to Cherry Lane and on the west side of Hwy. 603 across from DeRussy Motors.

Bids ranged from a low of $37,744 to a high of $71,217, and the District's consulting engineer, Duke Levy and Associates, will review the bids before the District awards the contract.

Suspect indicted in Independence Day Shoreline murder of Gynnette Spiers

BY GEOFF BELCHER
News Editor

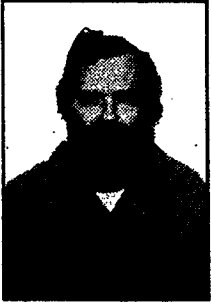

A Hancock County Grand Jury last week returned a murder indictment against Williams Roger "Beep" McNeill for the Independence Day 2000 murder of Shoreline Park-resident Gynnette Sharon Spiers.

McNeill was incarcerated at the Hancock County Justice Facility on an unrelated check forgery charge the day after Spiers' death, and formally charged with her murder in December. He was also charged with being a habitual offender, and remains lodged in the facility without bail.

Investigators say McNeill, 48, alias "Jack Jenkins," was a "drifter" whom Spiers took into her home for a brief period. He was not living with her at the time of the murder, however, but detectives from the Hancock County Sheriff's Department say he hit her in the head with a blunt instrument.

Williams Roger "Beep" McNeill

not crack her skull, but caused a loss of a lot of blood, which probably caused her death."

Lambert said that evidence at the crime scene led investigators to make the formal charges against McNeill, who had gotten to know Spiers through a "circle of friends" that included her ex-husband.

Lambert said McNeill was charged with being a habitual criminal — which under Mississippi penal code carries an automatic life sentence — not only for the murder charge, but also because he has two prior felony convictions: One in the 1970s for a burglary in Washington state, for which he was sentenced to 15 years in prison and served three; and one for an armed robbery in Gulfport, for which he served more than nine years in the Mississippi State Correctional Facility at Parchman.

No trial date has yet been set in the case.

Pearlington firefighter arrested for burglary

BY GEOFF BELCHER
News Editor

A Pearlington volunteer firefighter was arrested last week for allegedly stealing from his own firehouse.

Hancock County Sheriff's Department Chief Investigator Bob Lambert said Friday that Dimitrios Tzuanos, a 20-year-old white male, was arrested for allegedly burglarizing the Pearlington Volunteer Fire Department on Monday and stealing several items, including two generators.

"He (allegedly) sold the larger, hand-cranked generator to a business person over in St. Tammany for $200," Lambert said, and "also sold a pump that was supposed to be destroyed" because it was county property.

The items that were allegedly sold have been recovered and returned to the fire department, Lambert said, and Tzuanos has been dismissed from his post. He was lodged at the Hancock County Justice Facility on Friday on a $15,000 bond on charges of burglary of a commercial building.

The incident is still under investigation by Detective Rita Blaize-Watson.

Cuevas' Quotes

by Ellis C. Cuevas
Publisher Emeritus

It appears the formation of a Hancock County Chapter of the Pearl River Community College Alumni is well underway with Monday night's meeting to elect officers and directors.

The meeting will be at 5:30 p.m. at the Hancock County Courthouse in Bay St. Louis.

All PRCC alumni are invited and urged to attend. I know Frank Ladner has been very busy in the past several weeks trying to help organize such a group.

There are so many residents of Hancock who are alumni of PRCC, and I hope many will be interested in the new association which I have been told will not have any dues structure.

We at The Echo did some checking this week and received some bad news for a group of fishermen.

The news is that the 'No Fishing' ban on the U.S. 90 bridge across the Bay of St. Louis will remain when the center divider is completed.

The Mississippi Department of Transportation reports that the no fishing from the bridge will remain in effect because it is a high-speed highway.

I know there were hundreds who fished from the bridge before the center lane construction began, so it looks like they will have to find some other location to fish from.

In looking back - I even fished several times from the structure years ago - we are really lucky no one to my knowledge was hurt or killed, as fishermen would frequently cross in front of traffic from one side to the other.

Work is scheduled to be completed by the end of June on the center lane project. Some sealing and cleaning of the barricade on the eastern end needs to be completed, and some yellow striping and some reflectors on the center divider is all the work that appears to be left on the bridge.

Today should be busy at the Stennis International Airport as Phillips Aviation, Inc. will be hosting the annual Old Timers Memorial Fly-In.

This will mark the 16th year for the event hosted by Gene Phillips' company and should draw some interesting early models of airplanes.

Last year there were more than 100 planes that came in from across the country for the event. Chicken dinners and crayfish by the pound will be available at noon for lunch.

I am sure everyone will have a great time.

The next two weeks will see increased police activity across the nation in regards to the use of seatbelts and the buckling up of kids.

Click It or Ticket, will be enforced nationwide, and the Bay St. Louis Police Department is one of the 10,000 law enforcement agencies participating in the program.

Officers will sharply enforce adult seat belt and child passenger laws across the state and nation.

Mississippi, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, was the fifth ranked in child fatalities, 43 in 1999 when unrestrained children were involved in automobile accidents. And, Mississippi is among the nation's smaller states in the number of motorists.

For the motorists who do not buckle up themselves or their children, the next two weeks is a very good time to get into the habit.

By the way, the cost of a citation in itself may be small, but after all court costs are added, the figure can be very substantial.

During Click It or Ticket there will be zero tolerance for drivers who violate traffic safety laws. If you are stopped for any traffic violation and you and your passengers are not buckled up properly, each of you can expect to be ticketed in addition to any other violations, according to Bay St. Louis Police Chief Frank McNeil.

Gov. urges legislators to make teacher pay raises permanent

Raising teacher pay to the Southeastern average is the most critical issue facing the people of Mississippi. That is a statement you heard me say time, and time, and time again when I was campaigning for Governor. It became a driving force for my first legislative session of Governor.

On May 1, 2000, I signed the teacher pay raise bill into law. I did so with one reservation. The members of the legislature made the decision to attach a 5 percent revenue growth rate requirement on the teacher pay raise salaries. I didn't agree with that requirement then, and I don't agree with that requirement now.

I spent a majority of this past legislative session talking with members of the legislature, telling them the 5 percent must be removed. The 5 percent requirement is an excuse.

Our teachers know it is an excuse. If we say that education is a priority in Mississippi, then let's put our money where our mouth is.

The legislature has said it is their job to appropriate the money for the state. I agree. It is their responsibility to spend our people's money.

But they don't want to spend our money on education. They don't want to spend our money on good, quality teachers. Instead they are spending it in on prisons. Their priorities aren't straight. Education vs. Prisons. What gets the priority?

On March 30 of this year, I vetoed House Bill 1611, the State Department of Education's Minimum Program Bill. I vetoed it, because it was flawed. I vetoed it, because it robbed Peter to pay Paul. I vetoed it, because it did not make education a priority.

The Minimum Program is the basic funding mechanisms for teacher salaries, transportation costs, health insurance and other school needs.

The legislature should have funded the first year of the teacher pay raise plan by amending the salary schedule in order to give teachers the first year pay raise. They did not do that.

Ronnie Musgrove

Governor of Mississippi

By not amending the salary schedule, the teacher pay raise is considered a supplement. I believe our teacher pay raises should be permanent. I said back during this past legislative session that it was flawed and was going to cause this problem. The Legislature's refusal to remove the 5 percent requirement means the pay raises are not permanent.

Because of their actions, the legislature has forced some school districts to have teachers sign waivers stating that they understood the money was not being appropriated as a salary pay raise, but instead as a state supplement. Because of the legislators' actions, our teachers are not guaranteed a pay raise in the future.

The legislature has played games with our teachers. They've played games with our children's education. They are playing games with all of us.

I have told our teachers that I would continue to fight for the removal of the 5 percent growth rate provision and make their pay raises permanent. And I will.

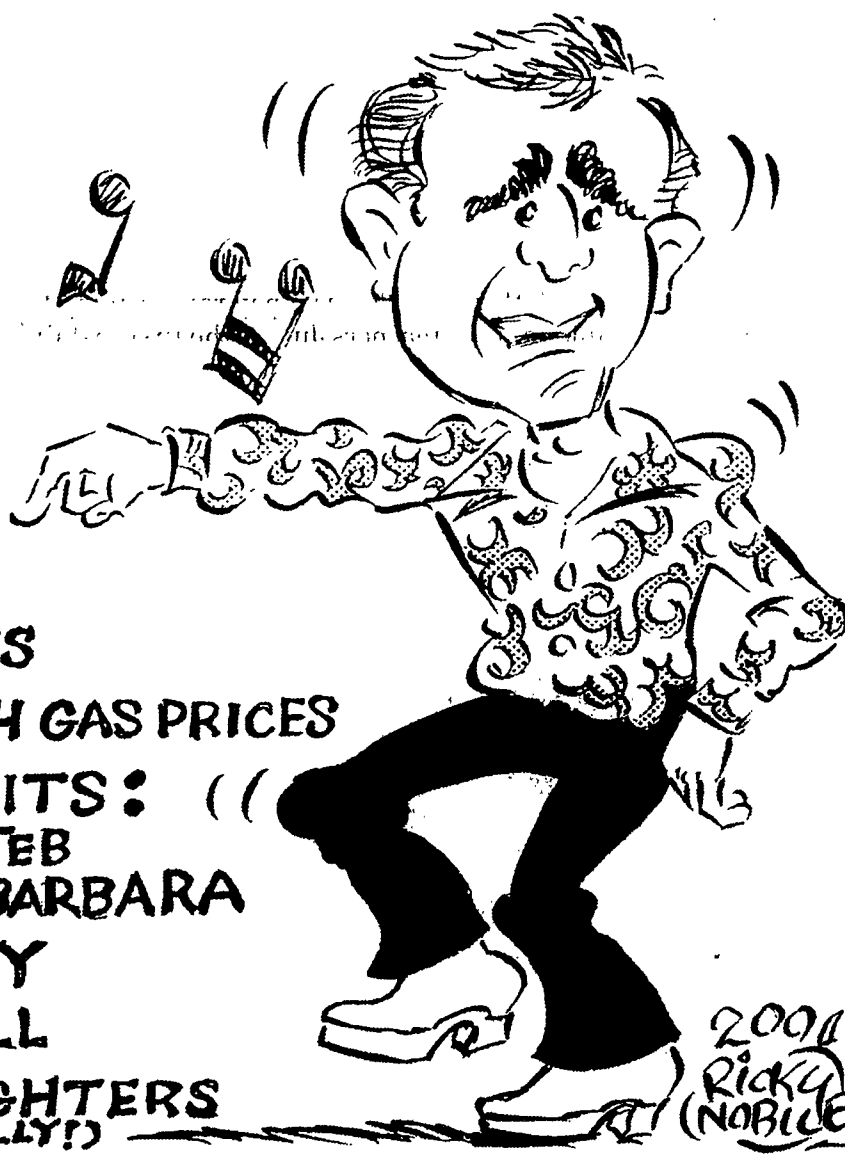

I will continue to fight on behalf of education. I will continue to fight on behalf of our children. I will continue to fight on behalf of our teachers.

If you believe our teacher pay raises should be permanent, we encourage you to talk with your local legislator. It will take all of us working together to ensure that education is a top priority of all Mississippi leaders. Our teachers and our children need our support and our commitment to education in Mississippi.

Saints vs Harry Potter

To the Editor:

In reference to the Harry Potter books there is a great division between the proponents and the opponents.

I don't believe that Harry Potter series leads children to Satanism, but it might in an innocent way spark an interest in magic. Personally, I do have a problem with magic even if its intended purpose might be for good.

I believe some people get what they want through the use of magic, but there is always a payoff and the risk far outweighs the benefits.

I am coming from a Catholic point of view and the Church strictly forbids the use of magic. It is the Church's standpoint that the source of all magic, whether you want to call it black, white or gray, is Satan, himself.

Some magic practitioners don't believe in Satan, much less worship him. Some believe that magic works in harmony with nature and they use it in an attempt to help themselves and their fellow creatures.

I believe that anyone who uses magic for whatever reason is breaking spiritual laws and that increases the influence of evil in the world.

Some people are truly excited because the Harry Potter books have really gotten kids into reading whereas they might never have even picked up a book before.

I don't believe in censorship except when it comes to parents. I even purchased a Harry Potter book to see what all the fuss was about. It was cute, and I could see why kids and even some parents like the series.

I'd like to tell parents that there are other good and exciting books out there about real people who have endured life's sufferings, and instead of using magic they relied on faith.

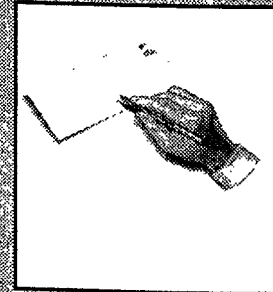

I know that sounds boring, but the lives of many saints were anything but boring. There are several saints who died as children, or teenagers, such as St. Maria Goretti and Joan of Arc. Joan successfully led a small army into battle then was accused of witchcraft and burned at the stake.

There were some other interesting and funny saints, too. Before St. Augustine became a saint he prayed, "God, grant me chastity but not yet."

Letters to the Editor

Our letters policy

The Sea Coast Echo welcomes comments from its readers. Letters must be signed and include address or telephone number. Letters should be brief, preferably typewritten and double-spaced. Only one letter per writer per month. The editor reserves the right to edit or reject letters. Letters of thanks, expressions of appreciation and political endorsements are inappropriate.

Saint Lawrence is the patron saint of cooks. While he was literally being cooked to death on a gridiron he joked to his persecutors that they could turn him over, he was done on that side.

St. Louis Bertrand changed a gun pointed at him by a would-be assassin into a crucifix, by making the sign of the cross. You will even find saints to help prostitutes and heal hemorrhoids!

Many saints were outcasts, they were persecuted, and the objects of terrible gossip and other injustices, but they didn't go around shooting in schools or being criminals, and they sure as hell weren't wimps. Many were tortured and died for their faith.

Also, I might add that true Catholics do not worship saints, we simply honor them as heroes, holy heroes because of their love for and relationships with God. The stories about saints don't just have the benefit of entertainment or escapism. They can help you live through the tough times.

Those whom God loves suffer much, but in the end it's not how much you accomplished, it's how well you endured.

TEN YEARS AGO

May 16, 1961 - Mardi Gras Casino Corporation intends to blend into the scenery (so to speak), according to its president, Marlin Torgeson. At a Tuesday Bay St. Louis City Council workshop meeting, Torgeson addressed the council, mayor, a handful of local residents and business owners. He said Mardi Gras Casino Corporation owns the Pete Fountain property at the foot of the Highway 90 Bay bridge, and intends to develop that area into a facility 'that fits into the whole atmosphere of the city.'

Through the combined efforts of many, the Hancock County Food Pantry has completed five years of operation. During that time, the Food Pantry has helped 4,500 deserving families, which includes some 15,000 individuals.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

May 14, 1981 - Location filming for the Miss USA pageant again this year will include the Wavepool at Waveland's Buccaneer State Park. The pool, designed by Fred Wagner of Bay St. Louis, has become one of the hottest tourist attractions of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. The pageant will be aired nationally on the CBS network from the Mississippi Gulf Coast Coliseum.

Positive responses to a recent survey indicate the Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian area is rich in archaeological history.

A University of Illinois archaeological survey team will begin working in this area in two weeks. The team of two to three students and professors will be led by R. Barry Lewis, a former resident of Waveland and assistant anthropology professor at the Urban-Champaign based university.

FORTY YEARS AGO

May 18, 1961 - A slight change in taste of city water may be in prospect. As a preventative measure on the recommendation of the Mississippi Department of Public Health, (Bay St. Louis) Commission Council Monday voted unanimously to purchase a chlorinating machine for use at the city reservoir. Commissioner J. Cyril Glover stressed there was no pollution of the water supply and pointed out that samples are analyzed weekly.

Oscar Breland, principal of Logtown Elementary School was elected president of the newly-formed Pearl River Softball League at an organizational meeting Tuesday night in Logtown. Representatives of eight teams attended the meeting, including Logtown, managed by Breland, Pearlinton, Santa Rosa, Union, Nicholson, Bienville, Picayune Riff-Rafts and the Picayune High School seniors.

The largest graduating class in the history of the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School District will receive its diplomas at exercises at 8 p.m. Friday in the gymnasium. Fellers Drury tops the 74-member class and will deliver the valedictory address entitled Quiet Moments in the Space Age. Edith Traub, salutatorian, will speak on A Senior's Reflections. Dr. Franklin Atkinson, pastor of First Baptist Church, will deliver the invocation, and Rev. Bernard Haddican, assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, will pronounce the benediction.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

May 18, 1951 - An Industrial Committee for the City of Bay St. Louis has been named by the Mayor and Commission Council. The membership of the committee is composed of Leo Seal, Mrs. Joseph Kern, Howard LeTissier, Arthur Chapman, Maurice Artigues, August Scaife and T.T. Robin. The duties of the committee is to work with the Mayor and Council in an effort to locate industries in Bay St. Louis.

SIXTY YEARS AGO

May 16, 1941 - Fort Benning, Ga., May 10. Corporal Jerry M. Bourgeois, 23 years old, of Waveland, Miss., selectee panzer soldier now in Second Armored Division, was awarded a Mother's Day telephone call today when his company commander selected him as the neatest soldier at an inspection conducted by Company B of the 17th Engineer Battalion. Cpl. Bourgeois, who is away from home for his first Mother's Day, will tell his mother Mrs. Thomas J. Bourgeois of his promotion from private May 1, of which she is so far unaware. The soldier was one of five soldiers chosen in the battalion for Mother's Day calls as rewards for excellence at the inspection.

Teacher pay raise is certain, commitment remains strong according to Lt. Gov. Tuck Lt. Gov. Amy Tuck issued the following to reinforce recent remarks about the pay raise coming to Mississippi teachers:

Mississippi's teachers deserve a pay raise, and they are going to get it. Bank on it. I do not know what has caused the governor to try to make teachers fearful or otherwise preach gloom and doom.

I can assure our teachers, parents and students that when state budget meetings get started in September, I will be looking for every single dollar we can find to keep our teachers' salaries moving toward the Southeastern average. I am committed to getting there as fast as we can.

This is a pay raise coming to teachers July 1, the first installment over several years, not a bonus or a supplement.

While I do not have a crystal ball about the future, I remain optimistic that good things will come our way. And I continue to believe that if we will all work together, we can make good things happen in Mississippi.

Kiln student among MSU national winners

An animal science team from Mississippi State University took home high honors in the 2001 All East Livestock Evaluation, Selection and Judging Contest.

Held April 5 through 7 at Michigan State University, the contest is one of two offered nationally each year that incorporate different aspects of livestock production.

In addition to finishing first in the overall evaluation contest, the MSU team from the Animal and Dairy Science Department took first in sheep evaluation and swine evaluation. The team won third place in beef evaluation, third in sheep judging, and fifth in overall livestock judging and overall combined contests.

"I thought they did super. They did better than the ultrasound machine did on the evaluation," said Tommy Shields, judging team coach and Animal and Dairy Science instructor. "These students worked at least two weekends a month and every Monday and Wednesday afternoon getting ready for the contest. They're our future leaders in the livestock industry."

MSU competed against 10 other universities, including Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Michigan State, Ohio State, Purdue, Tennessee-Martin, Virginia Tech and West Virginia. More than 90 individual contestants made up these teams.

Among the team members was Ron Ladner of Kiln who placed first in sheep evaluation, ninth in swine evaluation, third overall evaluation and fifth in sheep judging.

A customer service bulletin issued over the Internet from CSX headquarters announces, "Beginning Monday, July 2 at 7 a.m., CSX will begin a major rehabilitation of the main line between Montgomery and New Orleans."

"This will include rehabilitating a major portion of the main line between Flomaton, Ala., and Pensacola, Fla. The main line between Montgomery and New Orleans, including the main line from the junction at Flomaton to Cantonment, will be closed for the duration of the project."

Line-haul service will actually wind down on Saturday, June 30, in preparation for the Monday shutdown.

CSX said the repair work will require 700 employees working 24-hours-a-day in 12-hour shifts. Plans call for installing more than 100,000 new rail ties, six miles of new rail, repairing 14 bridges and cleaning up embankment shoulders on more than 60 miles of main-line track.

CSX plans to reroute most line-haul traffic to other railroads and gateways, which may delay transit times 24 to 48 hours, the bulletin said.

Plans call for the line between New Orleans and Montgomery to reopen around 10 a.m., Friday, July 6, and CSX officials say they expect service to return to normal by Sunday, July 8.

The Wellman PET resin manufacturing plant is the largest rail customers at Hancock County's Port Bienville Industrial Park, and plant manager Pete Woody said he has been planning for the shutdown.

Rail cars are used to ship in the raw products used for manufacturing the resin and to ship out the finished product.

"We don't think it will impact us to much," Woody said.

"In anticipation of the shutdown, we've been taking in extra raw material and we're shipping out by rail more than the normal amount of the finished product."

He said Wellman could feel the pinch if the shutdown goes beyond the forecasted four days.

"It is important to us that this outage is not longer than is projected," said Woody. "If it goes six to 10 days, it could become a big problem."

Woody said Wellman has the option of using trucks should the shutdown go beyond the four days, "but, it becomes expensive."

The whirlwind repair project is also expected to be an economic boom for communities along the rail line since workmen will have to spend money on food and lodging.

'Rapping' doctor to speak at SOC/Operation Wake-Up event

BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

President of The Piney Woods School Charles H. Beady, Jr. Ph.D. may offend some with his bold approach to reaching youth, but his methods, though somewhat controversial, have helped some 95 to 100 percent of the students at Piney Woods — mostly from lower socioeconomic backgrounds — graduate and go on to college, an amazing success rate in any group.

"I will do whatever is right, legal and necessary to motivate young people," said Beady.

Beady does just that, in a CD called "Whatever It Takes 2-Motivate 2-Daze Youth," teamed with motivational speaking, in what he explains as, "tapping into a popular culture that captivates youngsters and using its power to motivate and educate."

That popular culture is hip hop, which uses rap music as its prime means of communication. Of course, Beady does not condone the message of the hip hop culture, one he describes as "a way of communicating and living that is overwhelmingly at cross-purposes with the hopes many adults hold for the next generation."

Beady's message is simple: Listen to and respect your elders; dress appropriately; take advantage of the educational opportunities being made available to you; develop a positive sense of self; know the consequences of premarital sex; prepare for the future. His philosophy of teaching is even more so, "the key to motivation is communication; once communication is established, teaching and learning are more likely to occur".

A key to this communication, Beady stresses, is getting the attention of the people with whom you are trying to communicate. "Why not take the power of hip-hop and try to help youngsters with it. Why not talk to them about the things that get their attention using the medium that has them so captivated," Beady asked.

And, Beady said, that power captivates youth of all ethnic backgrounds. For instance, according to statistics in the January, 2001 issue of Ebony magazine, 80 percent of hip-hop buyers are now white. Hip-hop music surpassed country music in popularity last year to become the third largest category behind pop and rhythm and blues. The industry grossed $3 billion last year.

Beady said that when he first introduced his ideas at Piney Woods School, many students called him old hat, "but, they begin to ask to hear the CD and when a few got offended by the lyrics, I knew I had succeeded." The kids were talking about the ideas expressed in the lyrics, among themselves and with their teachers and the lines of communication were open, Beady said.

Beady will speak at Bay High School Auditorium at 750 Blue Meadow Rd. on May 25 at 6 p.m. The program is open to the public and parents are encouraged to attend with their children. The event is sponsored by Geraldine Lang, Save Our Children, Operation Wake-Up, and the Cities of Waveland and Bay St. Louis.

a new warrant on him.

The woman's name is being withheld.

Hamby, 32, of Kiln, was elected constable in 1999, and had recently planned a bid in November for the chancery court seat formerly held by Judge Joe Dobson.

He turned himself in at the Hancock County Justice Facility on May 4 after deputies had gone to his home to arrest him on a domestic violence warrant, but, then, allowed him to seek medical treatment in Slidell for dehydration and severe high blood pressure. He bonded out later that afternoon.

Sheriff Steve Garber placed

Hamby, a part-time deputy, on administrative leave without pay, but Hamby resigned from the department later that weekend.

The determination on whether he will remain as a constable is up to state Attorney General Mike Moore, Garber said, but if Hamby is convicted of a misdemeanor domestic violence charge, he could not legally own or carry a firearm.

Cuevas said Hamby is being held in Slidell on the latest charges, pending further word from either a judge or District Attorney Cono Caranna's office.

No trial date has been set on either offense.

over her."

Hancock County Coroner Norma Stiglet said Friday that all available evidence indicates Marilyn Lee herself must have accidentally knocked the truck out of gear, but no official determination can be made until the sheriff's department has completed its investigation.

"It was a freak accident, from what everything indicates," Ronnie Garber, administrator for Hancock County Sheriff Steve Garber, said Friday.

Making the accident even more tragic, Caspolich said, is that the couple only married a few short weeks ago.

Lee was a native of Perth, Australia. In addition to her husband, she is survived by two daughters and her mother, all three of whom still live in Perth.

A memorial service for her has been scheduled for 3 p.m. today at the beach at Bordage in Clermont Harbor.

Interment will be held in Australia at a later date.

Bay Police chief issues telephone scam warning

BY ED LEPOMA
Staff Writer

Hancock County residents are being warned about phone solicitations being made on behalf of law enforcement agencies.

Bay St. Louis Police chief Frank McNeil said Thursday that the scam is taking place in several areas of the county.

"Someone is calling on behalf of the police department, soliciting money to buy bullet proof vests for officers," said McNeil. "We want people to be aware and advise them not to send any money."

McNeil said the Hancock County Sheriff's Department and Bay and Waveland police departments purchase vests for their personnel, and don't solicit any money.

The chief said the scam surfaced two or three weeks ago, but incidents have increased recently.

He is asking people who get phone calls soliciting money to contact his office at 228/467-9221.

Flying Tigers end the year with record performance

On April 25, the Bay High Air Force JROTC traveled to Daytona Beach, Fla., to compete against "the best of the best" drill teams in the world.

More than 100 teams competed in their divisions. The Bay High "Bombers" (Color Guard) garnered a 10th place overall and "best of service" recognition for the highest finish of any Air Force JROTC team.

This year's successes led to the cadets being proclaimed "best AFJROTC drill team in Mississippi." The 41 trophies won this year attests to their excellence.

Another drill competition year is over, but the work is not. The drill team, including the award-winning color guard, will be participating in three major events before the summer is here.

First, they will be "presenting the colors" at the American Legion Post 77 on Memorial Day, 28 May.

Next, the entire drill team will be performing a Saber Gauntlet, Color Guard, and Flag Raising ceremony at the Bay High Graduation May 31.

Third, and final work for the drill team will be at the Mississippi Welcome Center of Hancock County on June 14 (National Flag Day).

The community is invited to come out and observe these young adults, the future of our community.

Views on Dental Health

Preventive Maintenance

Frank L. Conway Jr., DMD

Anyone who has been treated for extensive tooth decay or specific bacterial infection should know the value of periodic review by dental personnel trained to spot such problems.

The interval between recare exams should not be based on some arbitrary time period, the standard six-month examination for example, but rather on the probability of recurrence of infection or other problems.

Some patients in the early stages of treatment or with a recent history of gum disease should be seen frequently, sometimes as often as every two months. Others with long histories of good control may only have to be seen twice a year, which is a minimum.

The recare interval is extremely important for children. Besides the possibility of dental disease, the process of oral development does not always go smoothly.

Orthodontic or surgical intervention to correct a relatively minor problem at the proper time can greatly reduce future problems.

Brownie Troop receives award

Brownie Scouts from Troop 340 received the Child of Mary religious award.

For more than 20 years the Gulf Pines Girl Scout Council has sponsored the National Religious Award Program. Scouts from Bay St. Louis, Waveland, Diamondhead and Kiln attended a workshop held at Annunciation Catholic Church where leaders guided the girls through the special religious activities.

The Child of Mary Award recognizes second and third grade

Brownie Scouts. The program is designed to help girls become more aware of God's presence in their daily life, especially within the home and community.

The Scouts focused on activities that reflect on God's presence and then created prayers, art and gifts to demonstrate their knowledge.

The award was presented in each Scout's parish. Members of Troop #340 received the award at a special Girl Scout Mass held at Annunciation Catholic Church.

Pass High football spring game

BY MAURICE SINGLETON
Contributing Writer

The Pass High Pirates stumbled and appeared to recover in a 28-8 loss to the St. John Eagles in their spring game at McDonald Field in Pass Christian on Friday evening.

The goal for the coaching staff during spring training was to build depth and get game experience. And - from that standpoint - the Pirates were successful, with obvious improvement from the first half to the second.

"Our goal was to get individuals ready so that we could have depth for next year," said third-year Coach Bo VonderBruegge. "I feel that's where we were short last year, in the depth department. We had a lot of injuries last year; when those injuries started to fall, we didn't have players to step up and fill in."

"I feel I have guys who are ready to step up and fill that gap," VonderBruegge added. "I felt I had a senior group who showed leadership and never quit on us."

The Pirates' defense overcame the Eagles' early offensive momentum, which gave the visitors a first-and-goal from the Pirates' 1-yardline. The Pirates forced three Eagles fumbles, on successive snaps, but were unsuccessful at recovering any of them. But the Pirates' defense succeeded at keeping the Eagles out of the endzone.

On the Pirates' first play from scrimmage, an Eagle defender made a tackle on Robert Hargrove behind the line of scrimmage and just inside the endzone for the safety, giving the Eagles a 2-0 lead.

The Eagles increased their lead on their ensuing possession. Aided by a questionable pass interference call, the Eagles rushed for 41 yards on six plays, including a 23-yard scam on second down. The point-after attempt failed; the Eagles led 8-0 with 33 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

Dale Smith carried on three consecutive snaps for the Pirates, picking up five yards, one yard and no gain on third down. Hargrove forced a defensive offside with a hard count on fourth down, giving the Pirates a first-and-ten at their own 41-yardline. On the next play, Hargrove underthrew Richard Dedeaux downfield near the homestead sideline and was intercepted.

The Eagles' offense went to work again, picking up 19 yards on first down with the pass. Then their running game chopped at the Pirates' defense with runs of 25 yards, three yards, four yards and a 10-yard touchdown run. The point-after attempt failed, giving the visitors a 14-0 lead going into halftime.

Richard Dedeaux ended the visitors' first possession of the second half deflecting an Eagles' pass downfield and rebounding it for an interception at the Pirates' 33-yardline.

The Pirates picked up their second first down of the game as Smith carried for three yards on a fourth-and-three situation.

The Pirates had their biggest offensive play of the night on the next snap as Hargrove on an option play, kept right for 30 yards at the visitors' 30-yardline. But the Pirates turned the ball over three plays later on Hargrove's third interception of the night.

Jason Lizana ended the Eagles' next drive with a quarterback sack good for a seven-yard loss, setting up a fourth-and-17 for the Eagles.

The Pirates failed to pick up a first down on their ensuing series. But again, their defense continued to show improvement. Lizana sacked the Eagles' quarterback on first down for a six-yard loss. On second down, the Eagles' quarterback's pass was tipped around the line of scrimmage and Ledal Johnson dashed under it, intercepting it near midfield and returning it to the St. John 11-yardline.

On first down, Maurice Hardnett carried off-tackle for the score. Hardnett kept left on the option for the two-point conversion, and the Pirates trailed 20-8 with 5:12 remaining on the game clock.

VonderBruegge said that there were some bright spots for the Pirates. He mentioned the performances of Hargrove, Reggie Dedeaux and Jason Lizana.

The Eagles added insurance with another score and successful point-after score on their final possession to give them a 28-8 win.

In junior varsity action, Pass Christian defeated St. John, 12-0.

The Pirates open their regular season in Pass Christian against Pearl River Central on August 31.

Safe Boating Week underway

The U.S. Coast Guard and Coast Guard Auxiliary, the National Safe Boating Council and the National Association of State Boating Law Administrators (NASBLA), will launch the annual Boating Safety Campaign during National Safe Boating Week May 19 - 25.

The campaign is designed to reach more than 72 million boaters nationwide and communicate this year's lifesaving message: "Boat smart from the start. Wear your lifejacket."

Lifejackets can be the determining factor between life and death in many boating safety accidents. Each year between 700 and 800 people die in boating-related accidents; eight out of every 10 victims were not wearing a lifejacket.

In an effort to combat these statistics, the 2001 campaign kicks off during National Safe Boating week, a year-round crusade that counts on community-based activities and the support of many volunteer groups such as the CG Auxiliary and the U.S. Power Squadron hold free boater safety classes year-round.

Additional information can be obtained on the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary web site at www.cgaux.org and U.S. Boating Safety web site at www.uscgboating.org.

Booths available for Fish & Wildlife Expo

Wildlife Mississippi, the state's largest charitable, non-profit, conservation foundation, will be hosting the 2nd annual Mississippi Fish and Wildlife Expo August 24-26 at the Forest County Multi Purpose Center in Hattiesburg.

The three-day expo is designed to showcase a company's product or service prior to the fall/winter outdoor season. It will feature hunting gear, tree stands, game calls, boats, fishing supplies, wildlife art, outdoor apparel, ladies gifts, game calls, guided trips, kids exhibits and much more.

Government conservation agencies will be on hand to answer questions about conservation.

More than 12,000 anglers, boaters, campers, hunters and other outdoor enthusiasts from throughout Mississippi and surrounding states will attend the Mississippi Fish and Wildlife Expo.

Peyton Self, president of Wildlife Mississippi, said "Proceeds from the Mississippi Fish and Wildlife Expo will go to Wildlife Mississippi for use on conservation projects."

The Mississippi Fish and Wildlife Expo is open to all businesses and organizations who wish to sell goods and services or provide information to a large group of anglers, boaters, campers, hunters and other outdoor enthusiasts.

For information or an exhibitor's packet, call Alyene Boyles, Expo coordinator at the Mississippi Fish and Wildlife Foundation, at (662) 686-3375.

Hancock Hawks triumph over Stone County Tomcats

BY DWAYNE BREMER
Contributing Writer

For football fans of the Hancock Hawks there are many questions surrounding the upcoming 2001 football season. The Hawks answered some of those questions Friday night as their hard work this spring resulted in a 24-14 victory over the Stone County Tomcats.

Hawks fans were treated to the same kind of hard-hitting, exciting football they have become accustomed to in the past. The Hawks looked well-coached and in good shape.

"I'm proud of the hard work these kids have put in this spring," head Coach Walt Esslinger said Friday night after the game. "We have had some injuries and some setbacks, but I was really happy with our effort."

The Hawks started out slowly as they were forced to punt after their first possession.

The Hawk defense stood tall, and forced a fumble that they recovered at their own 27, with 7:52 remaining in the first.

The Hawk offense would then march 10 plays and 73 yards for the first score. The drive was keyed by the play of quarterback Brandon Necaise. Necaise found a wide-open James Ball for a 20-yard pick up, and then Necaise scrambled nine yards on a fourth down for another first down. Necaise capped the drive with a 14-yard touchdown strike to Chase Sackett. Sackett added the point-after, and the Hawks took an early 7-0 lead.

The Hawks defense would get the ball back as they forced a Tomcat punt. Charles Bolden had a sack, and the Hawks took over at their own 14.

The Hawk offense then took over and confidently drove the length of the field in 11 plays.

David Brown started things off with an eight-yard run. Ervin "Pookee" Jackson then chugged for 15 yards and a face-mask penalty gave the Hawks a first down at the Tomcat 48. Sackett ran for seven and Brown netted five more for another first down, and three plays later Necaise hit Jed Duke on a pretty 27-yard touchdown pass.

On the play, the Hawks lined up with two receivers on the left side. Necaise pump-faked the first receiver on the line, and then hit a wide open Duke, who had sneaked behind the defense for the score. Sackett added the point-after, and with 6:47 to play in the half, the Hawks had jumped out to a 14-0 lead.

The Tomcats would tighten the game up, as they scored a touchdown with 49 seconds to go in the half, but the Hawks took a 14-7 lead into the half.

The Tomcats would take the second half kick-off and drive to the Hawks' 25. With the Tomcats in position to tie the game, the Hawk defense came up with a big play. As the Tomcat quarterback dropped back to pass, he was clobbered by a big hit from David Ball and Donnie Moran; the football came free and Bolden picked up the pigskin and returned it 22 yards to the Tomcat 43.

After a penalty, Necaise hooked up with Sackett for 19 yards, and Sackett ran for nine more yards a first down. With the Hawks facing a third and twelve at their own 22, Necaise scrambled for 10 yards to the 12. The Hawks would cash in as Sackett booted a 29-yard field goal, and with 5:29 to play in the third the Hawks had a 17-7 lead.

The Hawk defense would not allow a score in the quarter, and with 8:54 to play in the game the Hawks took over at the 42.

The Hawks would then put the game away with a nine-play drive that was classic Hancock football. The Hancock offensive line took over the game as they began to gain their identity as the new "TrenchDiggers". The line of Donnie Moran, Alan Pace, Steven Guidios, Matt Crittenden and Chris Moore dominated the line of scrimmage and opened the way for the final Hawk touchdown.

Jackson started things off with a six-yard run; Brown then picked up nine. Jackson gained three and Sackett took off for a 25-yard run – the longest of the game. Five plays later, Jackson danced into the endzone for the score. Sackett added the point-after and with 4:18 left, the Hawks led 24-7.

The Tomcats would score a late touchdown to make the score 24-14 final, but if there was any question about who dominated the game it was answered on a crushing hit by Hawk defenseman Eddie Bledsoe. Bledsoe de-cleated a Tomcat runner, and sent him airborne five yards into the sidelines.

The Hawks would take a lot of pride and joy out of this victory.

"Our guys worked hard, and they have come a long way to get this far," said offensive line coach David King.

The Hawks will be moving up to class 5A this year, and their schedule will be a lot different from years past. The Hawks will play state powers Brandon, Laurel and Wayne County, as well as Natchez, Oak Grove, Petal, and Hattiesburg.

The Hawks will still keep the county rivalry going, though, as they will take on St. Stanislaus – but unfortunately for county football fans, the Bay High Tigers refused the Hawks' request for a game this year.

"We have a young team, and we are very thin because of some injuries, but we have a lot to like about this team," Esslinger said.

NASA-developed imager undergoes first test flight

NASA-developed technology that detects changes in plant chlorophyll levels that may not be visible to the naked eye holds potential as a useful tool for agriculture, forestry, environmental health and industry.

A new use being tested for the portable video imager is in the detection of leaks from septic systems. Last August, representatives from Associated Technical Management Corporation (ATMC) of Texarkana, Texas, the company that has licensed the NASA technology, flew over Mobile County, Ala., with a modified prototype of the imager. This was the first test putting the NASA-developed portable video imager for commercial use.

ATMC received a dual-use license for commercialization of the portable video imager. The imager is a portable remote sensing device that is mounted on aircraft for field surveys and data acquisition. The imager was initially designed for early detection of the chlorophyll loss that usually accompanies plant stress caused by factors such as insufficient nutrients, inadequate watering, disease or insect infestation.

For this new application, the imager was used to detect raw sewage leaking into the environment near Mobile Bay. The Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Gulf of Mexico Program, which targets areas in the five Gulf Coast states to improve the environmental health of the Gulf, sees the potential of the project in the protection of human health.

"This project shows how small efforts benefit the larger picture," Bryon Griffith, Gulf of Mexico Program deputy director at Stennis Space Center, said. The data from this project was then provided to the Mobile County Health Department for evaluation. Preliminary results indicated that the technology might be useful in detecting sewage system problems and in documenting chronic public sewer overflows.

According to Clarence Erdman, director of Environmental Health Services for the Mobile County Health Department, data collected from the flight enabled public officials to better utilize limited manpower resources. Continued development of the technology may address public health and water quality issues.

Dr. Greg Carter and Bruce Spiering, the NASA researchers at Stennis who first developed the imager, said the technology holds possibilities for a broad range of uses "from field crops to pine plantations and environmental monitoring."

"This is the first dual-use project for Stennis Space Center," said Kirk Sharp, NASA's Technology Transfer manager at Stennis.

"Leveraging dollars from the partnership and ensuring commercial use of our technology is the essence of NASA's Commercial Technology Program. Bringing businesses in up front is why dual-use projects can succeed."

The project was a collaborative effort in the commercial development of NASA technology between NASA, ATMC, EPA and the Mobile County Health Department.

MSU director offers advice on career choices

Are you unhappy with your career choice and thinking about a change in direction?

Luther Epting, director of Mississippi State University's Career Center offers some advice for the frustrated employee about to begin the new-job quest.

• Since it would be absurd to go from one bad situation to another, first determine what work offers the best personal fit.

• Because it sometimes is hard to draw a line between the demands of personal and professional worlds, also determine in advance whether the new position will accommodate your lifestyle.

• Make a concerted effort to learn the position's day-to-day functions and demands.

• Instead of choosing a career because it is in high demand, concentrate on finding something in which you will be happiest.

• Understand the ratio for job supply and demand; in high-demand fields, finding work may not be a problem.

• In more competitive markets, the seeker must have an edge - a "wow" quality - and be able to market that quality to potential employers.

Again stressing the most important factor to be considered, Epting said, "When searching for work for the first time or sixth time, try to choose what will make you happy for a lifetime."

Tips for new investors

Investing may seem confusing - but it doesn't have to be. If you're new to the investment world, or if you haven't started investing, you'll get off on the right foot by following a few common-sense guidelines. Here are some to consider:

Build up your liquid savings before you start investing. You should have anywhere from six months' to a year's worth of living expenses saved, in liquid form, before you start investing. If you don't, you may have to deplete some of your investments to pay for emergency home repairs, a new appliance, a new car or any other unplanned, major expense.

Still, you don't have to relegate your savings to a passbook account that pays almost negligible interest. Instead, look for a money market account that offers a competitive rate and easy access to your funds.

Be aware, though, that a money market fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or other government agency. Money market funds strive to preserve the value of your investment at $1 per share, but it is still possible to lose money.

Pay yourself first. If you wait to invest until after you've paid the mortgage, utilities, grocery bills and countless other expenses, then you'll probably never invest.

Paychecks have a way of disappearing faster than we could have imagined. That's why it's essential that you "pay yourself first." As soon as you get paid, put whatever you can afford - $50, $100, etc. - into an investment.

You can even set up a bank authorization, allowing your bank to directly deposit the money. That way, you won't really "miss" it. And when you get a raise, you can increase the amount of your contribution - again without affecting your lifestyle. Consider investing any bonuses you get, as well. By regularly putting this "found" money to work, you'll speed up your progress toward your financial goals.

Diversify your investment dollar. When you're first starting out, you may not have enough money to buy a wide variety of investments, so you might want to choose just one or two. Over time, if you have more resources available, you can diversify further by purchasing mutual funds, stocks, bonds, government securities and other vehicles.

Well you've come to the right place.

Everything changes. Fortunately for you, this includes interest rates. Right now you can get a great rate with a UPInvestor® Money Market Account. What a party

On the afternoon of April 7, a dress-up tea party was held in honor of Courtney Geroux's 6th birthday hosted by her parents, Kelly and Cynthia Geroux of Diamondhead. The young ladies attend Kindergarten at Bay Catholic Elementary with the exception of Courtney's first cousin, Lindsey Sagera, who traveled from Abbeville, La. The party was held in downtown Bay St. Louis in the Camellia Room located behind The Bungalow. Sixteen young ladies were appropriately dressed for the occasion with old-fashioned dresses, heels, and hats. The young ladies played games, slipped on strawberry-kiwi punch from demitasse cups, and were treated to finger sandwiches, brownies, blueberry muffins, fresh strawberries, and birthday cake. A grand time was enjoyed by all, and as each child left, each was given a personalized china teapot to remember the special day. Attending were, front row from left, Kendall Ritten, Kayla Swartzendruber, Hannah Wood, Shelby Quintini, Kelli Clayton, Lindsey Sagera, Holly Raymond, and Sara Luther; back row, Courtney Geroux, Casey McLeod, Camille Kergoslen, Anna Taconi, Emma Hoelzel, Amy Love, Laura Santa Cruz, Victoria Franklin, and Kayla Ladner.

New buildings rising at USMGC

BY ED LEPOMA

Construction is going as scheduled on the $13.3 million Advanced Education Center and Library at the University of Southern Mississippi, Gulf Coast, in Long Beach.

That's the word this week from Debbie Blessie, project manager for contractor Roy Anderson Corp.

"The project has progressed as well as we had expected. We are right on schedule," said Blessie.

The AEC is scheduled for completion in November and the library should be completed by next Jan. 1, Blessie said. The work began last Sept. 13.

The construction project is USMGC's largest project since the university established its presence on the Gulf Park campus in Long Beach in 1972.

The new library will be a three-story, 54,236-square-foot facility, roughly seven times the size of the existing Cox Library, Blessie said.

The AEC will be a three-story, 50,681-square-foot academic building. It will feature a 500-seat auditorium and classrooms with technology/ computer access.

Funding was provided through legislative appropriations in 1998 and 1999. An additional $2 million for the AEC was provided by Harrison County and the cities of Biloxi, d'Iberville, Gulfport, Long Beach and Pass Christian.

Blessie said on-site tours of the construction underway can be arranged by contacting Sheilla White, director of USMGC university relations, at 228/865-4574.

Pass mansion on auction block

BY ED LEPOMA

A Gulf front mansion sitting on a five-acre tract on Scenic Drive in Pass Christian is going on the auction block.

The stately home at 533 E. Scenic, features immaculately landscaped grounds, beautiful Crepe Myrtle groves and majestic Live Oak trees.

J.P. King Auction Co., of Gadsden, Ala., has posted signs announcing the auction for Tuesday, June 19, and is distributing brochures on the Internet and by fax and mail.

The West Indies-style mansion includes three bedrooms, four baths and three fireplaces. The second-floor master suite with a sitting room overlooking the white sand beach has "his and hers" baths and dressing rooms. The wood-paneled library has floor-to-ceiling bookcases, and there is a gourmet kitchen. The estate comes complete with a one bedroom, one-bath guest house, a screened pool house and includes a three-car detached garage and a three-car carport. The entire living areas is secured by a sprinkler system fed by a private well.

J.P. King will man an office at the residence beginning June 8, and is advising appointments are necessary to view the premises. The local number to call is 228/452-3522.

The auction is scheduled for 1 p.m. June 19 on the premises. Bidders are being asked to provide a $50,000 cashier's checks or certified funds in order to bid. Registration to bid begins at 11:30 a.m. The deadline for broker participation registration is Sunday, June 17, at 5 p.m.

The auction is the second in recent months conducted by the Alabama firm. Last March, Raymond Nacaise offered his unique log-cabin styled mansion for sale north of Pass Christian. The home sits on a 35-acre estate that included a 10-acre lake. Nacaise decided against selling when the highest of four bids received came in at $935,000.

Salvias rank high as favorite plants

SOUTHERN GARDENING
BY NORMAN WINTER
MSU Horticulturist

Sages or salvias represent some of Mississippi's finest plants for the perennial garden, or for those who are seeking the cottage garden look. Their future looks even brighter based on Mississippi State University trials.

For years, the Truck Crops Branch Experiment Station in Crystal Springs has been wowing visitors at the Fall Flower and Garden Fest. The group of plants that keeps people taking pictures is the salvias.

Staples in the garden have been the Mississippi Medallion winner Victoria Blue, the Mexican bush sage and salvia indigo spires.

Mexican bush sage is drought tolerant and produces a mass of flowers suitable for cutting. In cut-flower trials by the University of Georgia, it has consistently produced 150 to 200 cut flowers per plant.

The Mexican bush sage starts budding in August and has spectacular blossoms until the first hard freeze. Since Mexican bush sage blooms on short days, if you grow it under a street light or floodlight, you will have a nice plant with no blooms.

It will need mulching to protect from extreme cold in the southern part of the state, and should probably be treated as an annual in northern regions. It is not so much the extreme cold that will take out salvias, but the combination of cold and wet. Good drainage is essential in your planting.

COMMUNITY INTERACT-ION

Bay High School students learning about themselves through service to the community

BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

Bay High School students Katy Benvenuti and David Gaines received a donation last week from the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club to attend the Rotary Youth Leadership Awards Program to be held this summer at Loyola University in New Orleans.

The students are members of the school's Interact Club, which emphasizes service to others. There are 7,334 such clubs in 97 countries worldwide, with 37 clubs in our local district 6840, which stretches from New Orleans to Oak Grove.

To finish a successful year of service, club members must participate in at least 80 percent of club projects. Of the 44 students who initially enrolled, only 14 will be honored in a pinning ceremony at the close of the year. Several of these special young people - who this year participated in projects as diverse as the beach cleanup to volunteering at an area nursing home - offered some insight on what they have gained from the year's experience.

"I love being involved in my school and throughout my community, and Interact has given me the perfect chance and many opportunities to do this," said club President and Interactor of the Year Erin Yarborough.

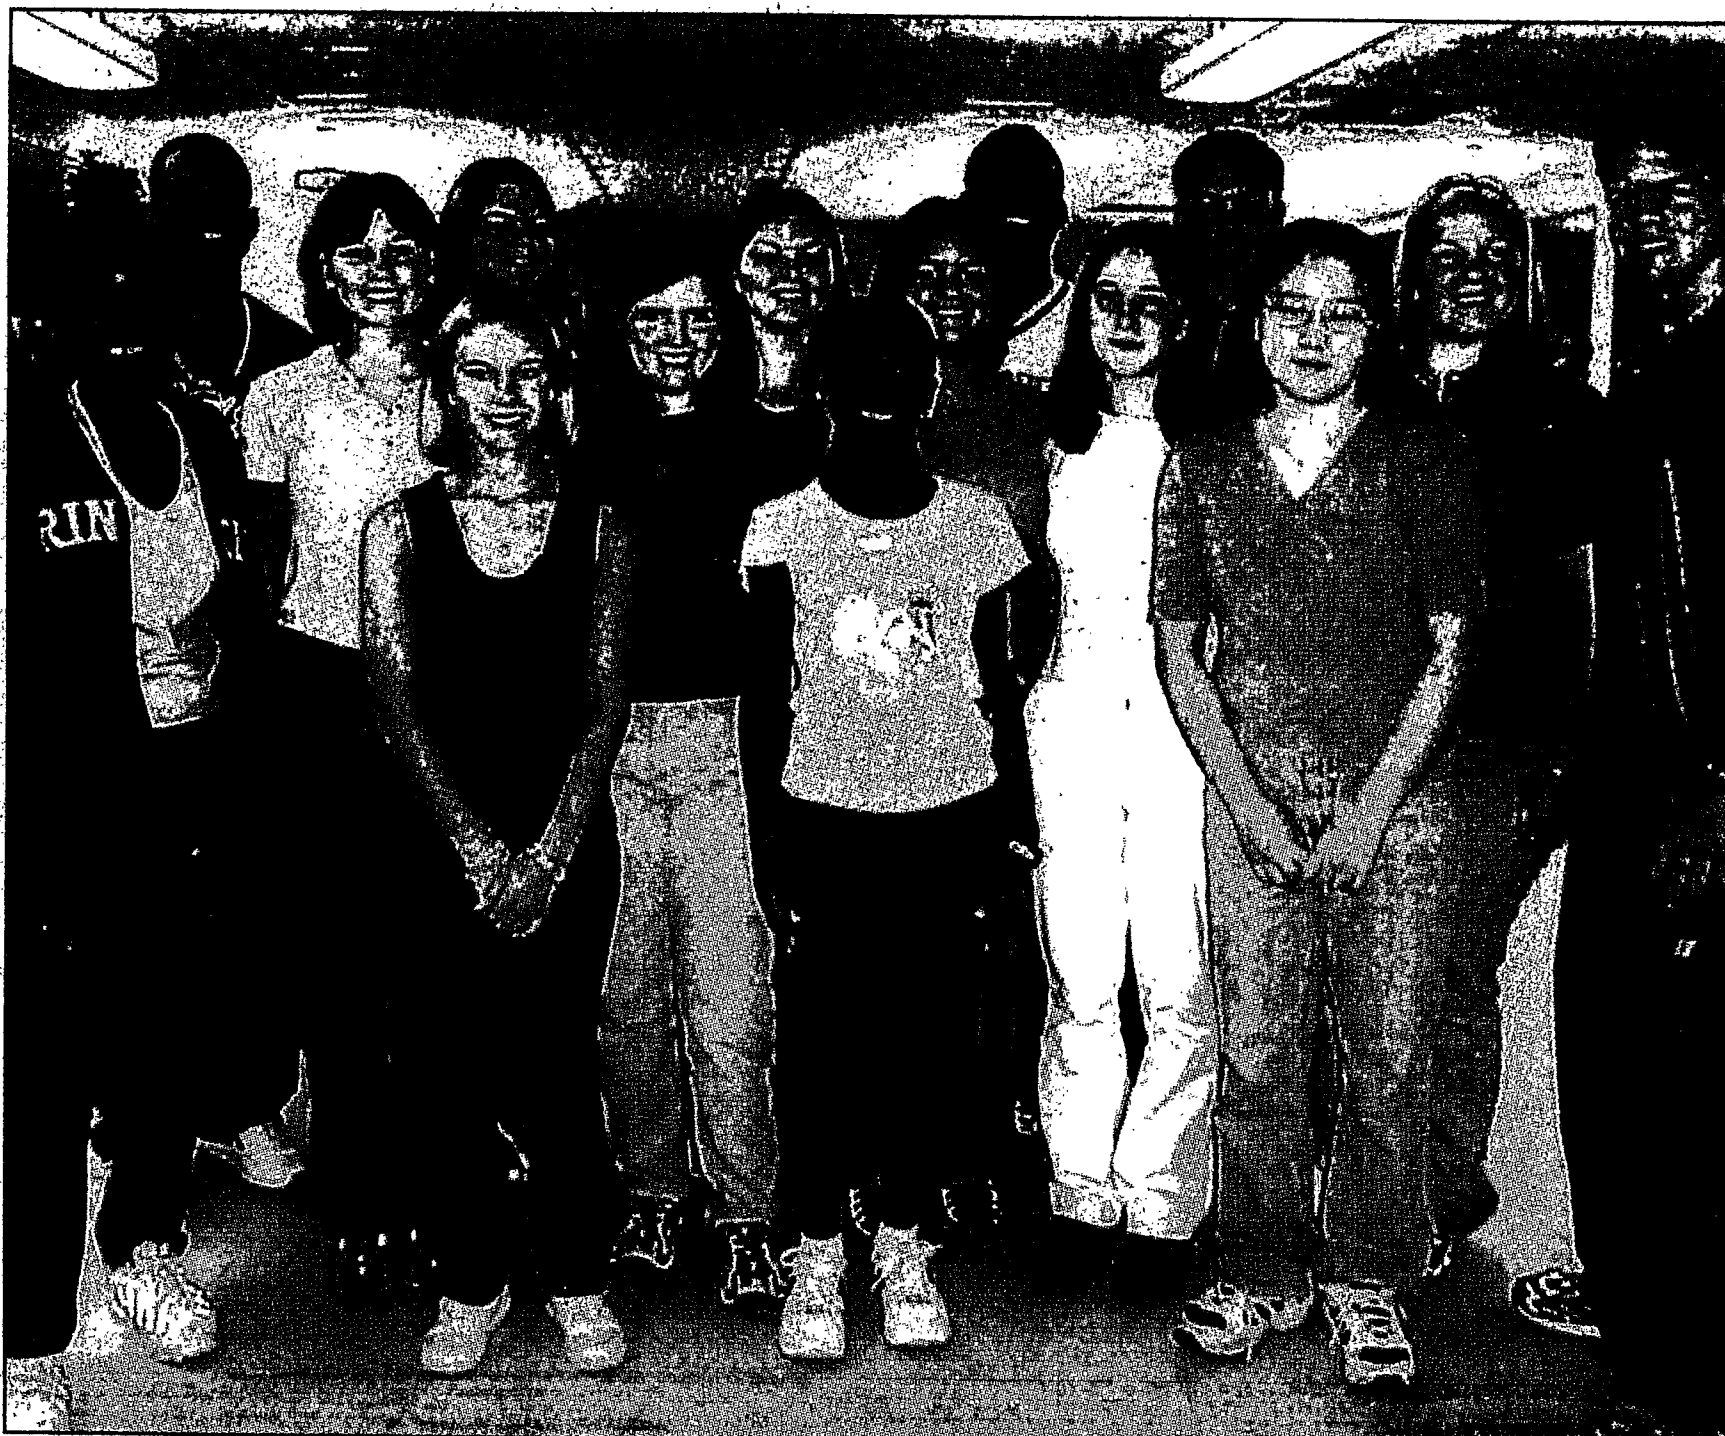

"It's a wonderful opportunity to go out and make a difference... and it's a boost of confidence to know that other people appreciate what we do," said Arrea'l Brown.

"It's an opportunity to inspire our peers and to realize that the clubs activities do have a positive impact on the community," said the clubs speaker Arrea'l Brown.

"I get to help other people... I enjoy working with seniors, working as a team and other clubs in the area," said Heather Burge.

"We make a positive impact on our school, community, and

Speak up, Interact

Editor's note: The following is the complete text of Bay High School Interact student Arrea'l Brown's speech to the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club Wednesday.

By Arrea'l Brown
Bay High School

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen, distinguished guests, and fellow Interact members.

Before I begin my speech I would like to recite a poem that I wrote especially for this occasion entitled "This Day."

*I may never see tomorrow;
there is no guarantee. And things that happened yester-*

SPEAK--PAGE 4B

Arrea'l Brown was chosen as Speak Up Interact for a speech she delivered at the District Convention in Diamondhead and later at the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club.

Pray for rain -- and God help us all

"SQUEEK, SQUEEK!"

(Late last August, with a sense of frustration, I wrote this as my Sunday column. It rained the next day and for much of the following week. I guess if you are a hinge and you want a little oil, it's best if you let out a little squeak. So, since we seem to be going through the same thing this year again, here it is once more! SQUEEK!!! SQUEEK!!!)

Yesterday, we could see black rain clouds to our north and hear the distant boom of thunder. We knew someone back there was going to get some rain, but we also knew that it wasn't us. We even got a little of the shading associated with the dark clouds and with this the temperature dropped down to the lower eighties.

But no rain.

It's nice to get cooled off by our neighbor's clouds, but what we really need is their water.

This kind of thing, showers everywhere but here, has been going on for some time. Too much time. It happened last weekend and the weekend before. When I complain to someone in Poyune or Saucier about our not getting any rain, they start giving me a long story of the inch or so of rain they had had "just the other day."

Somehow that doesn't make me feel any better.

When you look to actual measurements, even the rains they've been having are very small, just barely enough to wet the roads and water a few petunias. They need more, too. A lot more.

I've been in the country north of I-10 and from all appearances, the drought is hitting these inland areas worse than here on the Coast.

When you get down to it, we all could use several days of some good old hard, ground thumping, by gosh, wet and heavy, last for an afternoon, deep in the ground, make a puddle big enough for kid splashing kind of rain.

None of us have been getting that.

Nor did we get the normal amount of rain in the spring of this year. That hurt just by itself. Now it's summer, the time of year when all we can usually expect are scattered showers that are the result of afternoon heating. In normal years, these scattered afternoon showers happen often enough that all of us get the watering we need. This year, we're not even getting that.

What we have been getting lately makes a joke of the term "scattered showers". What we have been getting is someone, somewhere gets an inch or so in a short time, in a small area, that promptly runs off. It's a little like paying a little bit to one creditor out of ten and expecting the other nine to feel satisfied.

The lack of water at the critical growing time in spring and the lack again in summer for sustaining that growth hurt.

You can see the effects of this in the poor showings and colors of the crepe myrtles around town. Usually they present a blaze of color that lasts for quite a while and often comes back for a second showing later in the summer. This year the colors are dim and we have not had a second showing.

The azaleas that I put in last summer are not establishing themselves too well and despite my watering and standing over them with words of "there, there," two of them have died.

In fact none of the outdoor plants in the gardens around the house have shown the usual year's growth. They seem to be just barely holding their own. They all seem to be waiting, waiting.

If all of this sounds like I'm unhappy, I am. On the surface, this seems like an idyllic summer day. I've been sitting on the porch working on my laptop, with Jennie lying sprawled out sound asleep behind me. Holly is lying on the end of the porch looking for cicadas to eat.

In front of us, the sprinkler is going full force, its rhythmic swing sweeping a tall spray of water slowly back and forth on the lawn.

It's a soothing sound that normally would produce a comforting relaxed feeling of a lazy summer day - except that I know I'm going to have to get up and move it in a few moments. I've been moving this sprinkler since seven this morning. It takes six hours of diligently

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sanders

Sanders-Bezou wed

Rémy Thérèse Bezou and Michael Dwayne Sanders, both of Bay St. Louis, were united in marriage March 10, 2001 in an evening candlelight ceremony in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church in Bay St. Louis.

Father William Kelley, SVD, officiated. Soloist was Brooke Carroll; organist, Ed Grotkowski; trumpeter, Kevin Messer; and violinist, Marcel LaNasa.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bezou, Sr., and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Sanders, all of Bay St. Louis.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

For the occasion the bride chose a formal gown of white satin in an off-the-shoulder style. The portrait neckline was edged with scrolled venise lace, and the fitted bodice was appliquéd with matching pearl-decorated lace.

The basque waistline gave way to a full skirt with inverted pleating. Panels of pearl-decorated venise lace extended to the hemline which was encircled with matching lace.

Covered buttons closed the back of the bodice, and a cathedral-length detachable train fell from the back waist. She wore a tiara-style headpiece of venise lace and pearls with tiered veils of illusion extending to cathedral length.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Nicole VonderBruegge of Bay St. Louis.

Maid of honor was Christin Hirsch of Bay St. Louis, friend of the bride.

Bridesmaids included Jessica Keller, of Picayune; Alexis Hankins of Hattiesburg; Michele Carbon of Bay St. Louis, all friends of the bride; and Yolanda Sanders of Waveland, sister-in-law of the groom.

The attendants each were attired in a two-piece gown of rose-hued matte satin. They wore an organza shrug over the strapless bodice, and the floor-length skirts featured a pleated back with a small sweep train.

A "Flower Girl Basket" was placed at the foot of the altar rail in loving memory of the bride's niece and godchild, Chloé Hayden VonderBruegge.

The ring bearer was Joshua Sanders.

Best man was Charles Sanders of Waveland, brother of the groom.

Groomsmen included Kevin Jacobi of Waveland, Beau Rahmel of McNeil, and John Favre of Bay St. Louis, all friends of the groom; and Nathan Durbin and Kenneth Durbin, cousins of the groom, both of Spanish Fort, Ala.

Ushers included Blaine Durbin and Jacob Durbin, cousins of the groom, of Spanish Fort.

Honor attendants included Mrs. Judy Bishop, maternal aunt of the groom of Clanton, Ala.; Mrs. Karen Bezou, sister-in-law of the bride of Ramstein, Germany; and Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Seckso, Sr. maternal grandparents of the bride of Diamondhead.

Special appreciation to Carol Jaspas and Jonell Hirsch of Bay St. Louis, Barbara Keller of Picayune, and Mrs. Yvonne Sallinger and her staff at Bridalaira of Bay St. Louis.

A reception followed the ceremony in Our Lady of the Gulf Parish Center with music by M.J. the DJ and The Relative Unknowns, the bride's father's band, with special guest musicians Glen McGrath, godfather of the bride, and Bill Stroud, friend of the family, both of New Orleans.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Holiday Inn, Waveland.

After a honeymoon trip to New Orleans, the couple will make their home in Bay St. Louis.

Harrison Paul Moran, I, Leslie Radford, and Harrison Paul, II

Radford-Moran to wed

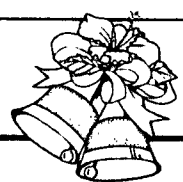

Quimby Radford of Oklahoma City and Jerry and Balinda Peebles of Kiln announce the forthcoming marriage of Leslie Lynn Radford of Kiln to Harrison Paul Moran, I, also of Kiln. Mr. Moran is the son of Charlene Moran of Kiln and Richard Moran Sr. of Pass Christian.

The wedding will take place June 2, 2001, at 1 p.m. in Catahoula Missionary Baptist Church, Hwy. 43 North.

day are now part of history. I cannot predict the future; I cannot change the past. I have only the present moment and must use it as my last.

I must use this moment wisely, for it soon will pass away, and be forever lost as part of yesterday. I must exercise compassion. Help the fallen to their feet. Be a friend unto the friendless. Make an empty life complete.

And all the unkind things that I do today may never be undone. And friendships that I fail to win may never be won. And I may not have another chance on bended knee to pray, but I thank the Lord with a humble heart for giving me this day.

I believe that this poem somehow encompasses the whole essence of Interact. If you listened to it very closely it details the one character trait that is most essential to each and every Interact in this room.

That trait is compassion. Webster's Dictionary defines compassion as: "the deep feeling of sharing the suffering of another, together with the inclination to give aid or support or to show mercy."

Could you imagine a world without compassion? Could you imagine if people were always cruel, insensitive, and just truly down right apathetic?

Our world would be a very cold and lonesome place to live in. So it is with that statement that I think we should all be grateful for that one small word which means so much to so many ... compassion. Food for thought, I'm sure.

As you all may know, the theme for this year's convention is "The Power to Interact". To some that phrase is simply that, just a phrase, a group of words strung together.

But to others, such as us, those are words of wisdom that we should live by each and every day of our lives. I know right now someone in this room is thinking to him or herself, "What can I do to change the world?"

Let me tell you, you aren't alone in thinking that. I too asked myself that very same question. "How can I, a small, insignificant person out of billions of others on this earth change my world for the better?"

Erin Yarborough is president of the Bay High club and school Interactor of the Year.

What I didn't realize was that I was well on my way by just thinking that single thought. What most people don't realize is that everything starts with an idea.

Can you honestly sit here and say that everyone just woke up and said, "Oh, maybe men and women should have equal rights" or "Maybe people shouldn't be discriminated against because of the color of their skin"? NO!

These changes came into play because one person stood up and voiced his opinion; speaking out powerfully against the injustices of society.

He realized that one person does have the power to make a difference. One person can alter the way in which we all conduct our daily lives and to make this world a better place.

The same thing applies to everyone here today. It doesn't matter how old you are, what race, or even what sex you may be. If you can come to the conclusion that you are not satisfied with the way something is going then you can use the power that you have inside of you to change your circumstances. It's all as simple as that.

Now think about it. If one person has the power to make even a small difference, then just imagine the impact of a large group of people such as ourselves.

I don't think that we fully understand the awesome range of power that we have. Do you not know that as a nation we have the power to elect who does and does not run our country?

Do you not know that we also have the power to create, abolish, and if necessary amend laws that apply to us?

Lisa Gaines and brother, David Gaines won the honor of Mr. and Miss Interact at a recent district convention in Diamondhead.

Some youth may think of it as a burden, but I personally look at it as a privilege. There are people in other countries who have no say so in the dictation of their lives, while we have the power to do as we please.

So why don't we use all this power for good? Start small. Help clean someone's yard in your community. Go visit some elderly people in nursing homes to let them know that somewhere, someone out there does in fact care for them.

Become a Big Brother or Big Sister. Just help someone, anyone in need of any help. By doing this I guarantee that you will be one step closer to improving our world for the better.

I now make this challenge to you. Prove to the world that we, the adults of tomorrow, aren't the lazy, uncaring, disrespectful, slobs that they perceive us to be.

If you leave convention without learning anything else at all remember this: You alone have the power to change your community. You alone have the power to change someone's life for the better. You alone have the power to Interact!

Thank you for your time.

the district," said Heather Ladner.

"Interact has given me the confidence to try to succeed in life ... I'm looking forward to the leadership program this summer," said Mr. Interact and RYLA winner David Gaines.

"I like actually having the opportunity to get involved in the community and make a difference ... it makes me feel good to see the people we help," said Elizabeth Mueller.

Interact is open to any student interested in community service. It's mission is providing young people with the opportunity to work together in a world fellowship dedicated to service and international understanding. Members participate in projects in five categories which encourage interaction with sponsoring Rotary Clubs, other schools and communities, as well as their own, and participation in fundraising events for charitable organizations.

Views -- rain, rain

moving it each hour to water all plants and grass.

What I can see through the sweep of the sprinkler's water doesn't help either. About five or eight miles out in the Sound there is a long line of clouds stretched from east to west. Those clouds are heavy with water. In three places in the line of clouds, the seam has burst and I can see rain falling, with one of these breaks dropping a fairly heavy amount of water. I've been watching this travesty for a while now, and the whole line of clouds with the broken rain cells haven't moved in the last half hour. I've been sitting here, knowing that what I am watching is water falling on water.

Yes, I am unhappy. It's said that, when faced with bad weather in the Battle of the Bulge, Patton ordered his chaplain to write a prayer for good weather. I think we need a prayer for bad weather.

If I wrote one, it would go something like what I've written here.

"God, send us some rain! "God, Don't send the namby-pamby rain. Send us the rain that comes in big drops. Cold drops. Drops that will hit the ground with a wallop, that will stir the dust. Drops that can fill buckets in seconds! Drops that we can watch come walking down the road toward us, smacking the ground, bringing with it crackling flashes of snapping lightning and the rolling deep whamming bass of strong thunder!"

"God, I want to be chased into the house by raindrops the size of marbles and cold as Jell-O. I want our dog, Jennie, to go running into the darkest closet and our cat, Holly, to hide under the biggest bed."

"God, give us a one-incher, no, make that a two-incher. Make the rain lash at the windows looking for ways to get in and get us. Make the thunder be a boomer, make it make enough noise to show us that this time it is serious, and make the lightning that goes with it snap so hard and bright you can smell the ozone."

"God, make this rain stay for a while, hitting the ground, burrowing in, soaking the earth. Make it wet things that dearly need wetting, things that have shriveled and, with parched leaves, have dumbly pleaded for water. Let this mass of rain give them that water."

"God, then let there be a long, steady fall of soft rain, let the rolls of your mighty thunder become subdued and your blinding, flashing lightning become mere blinks in the sky. Let the big rain move on to the east to visit the people in Long Beach, Gulfport, Biloxi, and Ocean Springs. They need rain too."

"God, let this gentle rain fall softly for the rest of the afternoon and evening and on into the night, putting us to sleep with the promise of a damp, wet earth when we wake tomorrow."

"God, we thank you. Amen."

Garden -- Salvias

been a good perennial at both the Experiment Station and my house, but people growing it in the northern third of the state may have to treat it as an annual. It seems to be happiest kept 4-foot tall and pruned back occasionally.

The star of the trials at the Mississippi State Arboretum on campus last year was the pineapple sage. This should be a mandatory plant for all southern gardens.

The most outstanding salvias of all MSU trials may be found at the South Mississippi Branch Experiment Station in Poplarville. Here two little-known salvias caught everyone off guard during their field day. The first is the orange mountain sage (Salvia regia). This salvia reaches 4 feet in height with extra large, orange, tubular flowers. Like the Mexican bush sage, this is a short day bloomer, meaning it puts on its best show later in the year.

The forsythia sage (Salvia madiensis) was my favorite at the variety trial. It reaches a towering 7 feet with bright yellow-bloom spikes of at least 12 to 18 inches. Hummingbirds seem very fond of this species.

In early April, I had the opportunity to go to the California Pack Trials to see the new plants there.

Strangely, there were some salvias this year that caught my eye. Ball Flora Plant, a division of Ball Seed, is introducing a new series of Salvia greggii known to us as autumn sage. Despite the name, it blooms from spring until frost.

This group will be known as the Navajo Series and will offer a royal purple, yellow, cream and red. A plus for this species is that not only are they cold hardy but deer reportedly detest the plants.

Hancock Vo-Tech students finish second in statewide auto skills contest

Two seniors from Hancock Vo-Tech Center finished second in the statewide Ford/AAA Student Auto Skills National Quality Care Challenge in Jackson.

Hancock Vo-Tech students Lacy Green of Bay St. Louis and Russell Dreifus of Diamondhead competed against nine other two-person teams in the hands-on automotive repair contest.

The state championship was determined by a combination of a written qualifying exam and the team's performance in a hands-on competition to quickly and accurately repair a deliberately disabled 2001 Ford Mustang.

The vehicles were each bugged with 10 identical flaws—including not being able to start, inoperable lights, and other problems that affected the smooth performance of the engine—and the teams were given 90 minutes to complete the contest.

It took Green and Dreifus nearly 68 minutes to repair their vehicle.

Tony Adams is their instructor at Hancock Vo-Tech. The statewide contest was sponsored by the Mississippi Department of Education, Ford and AAA. As second place finishers in the state contest, Green and Dreifus were awarded prizes and their choice of scholarships.

Tupelo Vocational Center seniors Henry Floyd and Tony White won the overall competition and will represent Mississippi in the national championship, June 18 in Washington, D.C.

Webster County seniors William Wilson and Daniel Hitt placed third in the statewide competition.

ELECTRICAL BLUEPRINTS

Russell Dreifus, top, and Lacy Green leaf through the electrical circuitry guide of a 2001 Ford Mustang to determine possible causes of engine failure. Ten two-man teams from across the state participated in the recent Ford/AAA Student Auto Skills Challenge in Jackson, a contest in which teams raced against the clock and other competitors to identify and repair 10 "bugged" parts on the car. Green and Dreifus finished second in the state.

LET'S GO TO MARKET!

SUPER ACE MARKET

IN THESE MODERN TIMES, GOING TO MARKET IS A MATTER OF GETTING INTO A CAR AND DRIVING TO THE SHOPPING CENTER. WE NEVER SEE THE MAN WHO GREW OUR FOOD, THE PEOPLE WHO MADE OUR CLOTHES, OR THE OTHER ARTICLES WE BUY AND USE. EVERYTHING IS PACKAGED NEATLY AND SHIPPED TO THE STORES WHERE WE DO OUR SHOPPING. BUT...

THE BIBLICAL MARKETPLACE WAS ANOTHER MATTER. A CITY'S GATEWAY OPENED INTO A KIND OF PLAZA—HERE WAS THE MARKET. WHERE EVERY KIND OF TRADING AND SELLING TOOK PLACE. AN ANCIENT SAYING DECLARED, "ONE CAN BUY ANYTHING IN THE MARKETS OF JERUSALEM, FROM A FINE CAMEL TO A FALSE TOOTH!" AND YOU WOULD MEET THE MAN WHO RAISED THE MEAT YOU BOUGHT OR THE GRAIN YOU WANTED FOR A FINE FLOUR—THE SHEEP-RAISER, THE OLIVE OIL-MAKER, THE FARMER, THE POTTER, THE CLOTH-SPINNER, WERE HERE TO PERSONALLY SELL YOU THEIR OWN GOODS. PEOPLE OF MANY NATIONS THROUGED DEBIALEWS MARKETS—A DOZEN LANGUAGES MIGHT BE HEARD WITHOUT TAKING MORE THAN A FEW STEPS—A CONSTANT CHORUS OF VOICES, CELEBRATING THE VIRTUES OF THIS MELON, THAT PERFUME, AGAINST A BACKGROUND OF THE CLINK AND JINGLE OF THE MONEY CHANGERS, WITHOUT WHOM THE BUYING AND SELLING OF ALL THESE GOODS COULD HARDLY BE MANAGED. A POLYLOT OF ACTIVITY WAS THE ANCIENT MARKETPLACE WHEN "GOING TO MARKET" WAS AN EXCITING EVENT, INDEED!

REFLECTIONS
ON LIFEBy Father Jerome
LeDoux, SVD

Tread lightly, patiently

The telephone is a marvelous invention, but it can be quite annoying when overused with calls piling up like a series of straws about to break the proverbial camel's back. Without realizing it, I was the camel recently, and the trouble calls kept on coming in until I had built up a tad of impatience.

"Do you know where I can get a free or discounted refrigerator?" the man asked me. "I know you sometimes mention in church that you help others."

I could feel in my bones that my response was dry and a bit short, but I directed the man to the lady who works through the St. Vincent de Paul Society for our parish. Despite my dryness, his response floored me:

"You just don't know. Every time I speak to you I feel better. I feel better right now just talking to you. Sometimes I drag myself into church, but I always feel much better after I hear you. God has blessed you in many ways, and has blessed me through you."

When the man hung up with a "God bless you," I found myself startled, shaken and somewhat frightened at my own dryness, near-impatience and deficiencies. I was painfully aware how close I must have come to putting a pin into the balloon of a person who finds solace, encouragement and joy in almost every word which comes from my mouth.

Lesson number one, of course, is that we can never afford to be short, dry, impatient or anything but our best when we communicate with each other.

Some might call it, "answering with an attitude," to describe the lack of patience, genuine interest and personal concern in our tone of voice.

What triggers that "attitude" can be almost anything, but usually a series of trying events or incidents which lead to the proverbial straw that adds the last tad of weight to the strained camel's back. Only constant and intense vigilance will enable us to discern and forestall such attitudes aborning.

The old adage, "Eternal vigilance is the price of peace," certainly has a parallel application here. Without an unbroken awareness and alertness, we will develop lazy, sloppy, very defensive, sometimes nasty attitudes in our communications with others.

So subtle, unnoticed and often trying are the occasions and conditions of our communicating with others that we are given numerous stern warnings in the Bible about the pitfalls and sheer power of speech. In his powerhouse letter, St. James explores at length the whole issue of speech.

"Everyone should be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath... If any one thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, his religion is vain... If anyone does not fall short in speech, he is a perfect man, able to bridle his whole body also" (James 1:19, 26; 3:2).

What James leaves with us is the stark reality of how pivotal, how basic and critical the role of speech is in our lives; so fundamental that it is the main criterion of whether we are spiritually perfect or not.

Upon longer, deeper reflection, it becomes obvious why James characterizes speech control as the linchpin of perfection. It is such a complex and monumental task to control our tongue because it can be done only through the mastering of all the other virtues.

For instance, without patience we can forget about being able to control our tongue. Ditto for kindness, gentleness, humility, compassion, mercy, generosity, faithfulness, self-control, all the so-called fruit of the Spirit and other virtues which Paul enumerates (Galatians 5:22; Colossians 3:12).

On the other hand, the presence and mastery of these virtues, which really means ingrained good habits, is possible only after we have eradicated the corresponding vices such as anger, immorality, jealousy, envy, hatreds, lying, slander, obscenities and profanities. (Galatians 5:19; Colossians 3:8).

I hope you are feeling together with me an overwhelming sense of the spectacular power of speech, one of our greatest gifts. So awesome is it that, even blunders such as mine in the course of a simple conversation often do not succeed in destroying the sheer magic God has placed there.

No telephone call, no communication by E-mail or any other medium, no greeting, no farewell is trivial or of minor importance. We thank God for the astounding power, thrill, reassurance, uplift and joy of our voice.

In front, Martha Burdette and husband Ernest Linwood Burdette; in back, daughter Anna Burdette and fiancé Justin Taylor.

'Miss Martha' retires at Trinity

A retirement party was held for Martha Burdette at the Trinity Episcopal Church Community Parish May 6 to honor her 27 years of teaching at Trinity Nursery School in Pass Christian.

Former students, their families and well wishers gathered with 'Miss Martha' to celebrate the accumulation of a lifetime of sharing her special brand of education. She was presented with two special gifts, an inscribed mirror and a bench with children's handprints. One surprise was a collection of letters from former students and parents compiled into a Book of Memories.

A special poem written by Candy Hotard, a TNS 'supermom,' was read at the presentation. It summed up the collective TNS experience stating the impact of Burdette's philosophy that the most important gift we give our children is truly the gift of our time.

Phyllis Brack has assisted Burdette for 17 years and will assume the role of director/teacher next year. Brack led current and former students in attendance in singing a special Trinity Nursery School Circle Time song.

Burdette is married to local businessman and civic leader, Ernest Linwood Burdette. They reside in Pass Christian. They have two grown children, Frank and Anna, who will both be married in the coming year.

She earned a bachelors degree in elementary education from Samford University in Birmingham, Ala. and continued at Auburn University receiving a master's degree in elementary education as well.

Her 32 years of teaching include primary elementary instruction in reading/language arts, supervising student teachers at Georgia College and teaching children diagnosed with learning problems at Central State Hospital in Milledgeville, Ala. Closer to home, Burdette was a preschool assistant at Trinity Nursery School before taking a job at Coast Episcopal for four years teaching third, fifth and sixth grade and at one point running the music department. She was coaxed into the director's position at Trinity Nursery School and will complete her 20th year this May.

Change has come to the program over the years. Burdette was instrumental in creating the current format of separate 3- and 4-year-old classes and the unique blend of academic and hands-on experiences offered in each program.

She also brought the school through the state licensing process. TNS is a fully licensed child care facility. Burdette states that the biggest impact to the school has been the creation of 'new space' for the children.

The education wing built onto the church created a special space for the preschool program. Child-sized bathrooms and work tables, storage for those extra egg cartons and supplies consumed each year, a full kitchen and the open, cheerful interior combined with a well-equipped shaded playground is every child's dream and every parent's hope for an organized and clean environment.

Burdette has also seen many changes in the Trinity Summer Camp program over the 17 years it has been offered.

Besides her duties with the preschool, she is actively involved in many Trinity Church activities. She belongs to the adult choir and Live Oaks Social Club.

Her past church ministries include assisting with the EYC youth group, directing Bible School, serving on the Vestry and involvement on the Fellowship Committee.

While most of Burdette's involvement has been in church outreach she currently serves on the Advisory Board for the Reading Excellence Act Grant at DeLisle Elementary.

When asked about her success with such a variety of students over the years she said most children won't need to disobey or act up if they are given positive attention.

She feels that the 'Golden Rule' is at the root of all of her lessons. Even children can recognize how they would like to be treated. It's an easy step to help them transfer those feelings to how they treat others.

A big part of the TNS curriculum is trying new experiences. Exposing students to a wide variety of real life stuff might include learning to belly dance, flying a kite or casting a fishing line.

Burdette's list of surprises includes introducing her students to adult guests who wear kilts during 'K' week and others who share all kinds of personal collections from owls to antique dolls. Students have cooked 'Bumble Bee Biscuits' and created pretzel stick log cabins.

Over the years Burdette admits she has learned priceless lessons from her students. She is careful not to 'preach' but her message is loud and clear, especially to young parents who struggle with the demands of family, friends and work.

Her tried-and-true adages still work in today's society. Respect each other. Spend time with your children especially during this very precious time in their lives. Give children choices when possible, so when no choice is an option it is easier to receive compliance.

Publicly praise a child, but privately reprimand. Don't give children everything they want so they will know that others have needs as well. And most importantly, being pretty on the outside is nowhere as important as being pretty on the inside.

Martha Burdette's retirement will probably look busier than most people's regular lives. She and husband Lin plan to travel and pursue mutual interests. She will be missed greatly in the classroom. Martha Burdette is a local treasure.

Hurricane Hunters, StenniSphere, StarLab to highlight Summer Reading Program

A visit from the Hurricane Hunters and their plane at Stennis International Airport, along with visits from StenniSphere and StarLab, an inflatable planetarium, are just a few of the great programs scheduled for the Hancock County Library System's 2001 Summer Reading Program.

Registration for the program begins Monday, May 21. Orbit the World with Books is the theme for this year's program, open to children and young adults, pre-school age through eighth grade. Programs and activities will begin Tuesday, June 5.

Programs will be Tuesdays at 10:30 a.m. at the Waveland Library and Literacy Center, Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. at the Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library; Thursdays at 10:30 a.m. at the Kiln Public Library; and Fridays at 10:30 a.m. at the Pearlinton Public Library.

Several programs will be held outside the libraries at the Bay St. Louis Depot and Stennis International Airport.

Each registrant will receive a reading record, book bag and pencil with which to record books read, and those who complete the program will receive a certificate.

Awards and certificates will be presented the week of June 26. A library card is required to check out all books, which may be checked out at any of the library system's four branches.

To register, children should go to the library branch nearest them, and then visit a branch at least four times during the program, and check out at least six books between June 4 and June 22.

To validate each visit, each reading record must be stamped. Merit stamps will be awarded for every five books read beyond the basic goal of six books. Other programs and activities scheduled for this year's Summer Reading Program include the Kowenka Dancers, yoga with Erlinda Nye, the Traveling Trunk Show from Lynn Meadows Discovery Center, and much more.

For more information about individual branch programs, contact Jeanne Jones or Adrienne Bradley, Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library,

Golf tournament benefits Pass youth

Members of the Pass Christian Unit of the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Gulf Coast May 11 hosted the 2nd annual Pass Christian Unit Golf Tournament at the Pass Christian Isles Golf Club.

Purpose of the event was to raise funds for the Pass Christian Unit. According to Tournament Chairman Gwen Voigts, the tournament was "a great success. It's support like this from the community that makes it worthwhile."

The event kicked off at 12:30 with a Scramble with over 100 golfers participating. The $100-per-person entry fee covered green fees, golf cart, lunch, snacks and beverages.

Four golfers walked away with accommodations for two at Beau Rivage including dinner at La Cucina and tickets to "Lord of the Dance." The winning foursome consists of Walker St. Paul, Jeffrey Taylor, Paul Montjoy and Tom Duffy.

At the event, Gwen Voigts presented a check for $28,000 to Unit Board Chairman Michael Lizana, Unit Board Volunteers Millie Bryant and Alicia Ellis, and Unit Director Ranard Head. This is the second year that Voigts has chaired the event.

Community residents have rallied together in support of the Pass Christian Club located in the former Middle School on Clark Street. The Club, which opened last June, is open to all youth ages 6-18 and provides after-school and summer programs.

A special thank you to all the volunteers, sponsors, donors, and players who made the tournament such a success and to the Pass Christian Isles Golf Club for being such a wonderful host location.

Kiln Water & Fire Protection District
PWS# 023050
May 2001

We're pleased to present to you this year's Annual Water Quality Report. This report is designed to inform you about the quality water and services we deliver to you every day. Our constant goal is to provide you with a safe and dependable supply of drinking water. We want you to understand the efforts we make to continually improve the water treatment process and protect our water resources. We are committed to ensuring the quality of your water. Our water source is from two wells pumping from the Graham Ferry Formation.

Our source water assessment is currently being conducted and is not available at this time. As soon as it is completed, you will be notified and copies of this assessment will be available at our office.

It's important to remember that the presence of these constituents does not necessarily pose a health risk in this table you will find many terms and abbreviations you might not be familiar with. To help you better understand these terms we've provided the following definitions:
Action Level - the concentration of a contaminant which if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
Treatment Technique (TT) - A treatment technique is a required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.
Maximum Contaminant Level - The "Maximum Allowed" (MCL) is the highest level of a contaminant that is contamination by substances that are naturally occurring or man-made. These substances can be microbes, inorganic or organic chemicals and radioactive substances. All drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that the water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline at 1-800-426-4791.

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immunocompromised persons, such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and

A FAMILY COMPANY

A quality timepiece... replicating John Deere's most popular tractor.

For more than 160 years, John Deere has come to symbolize the finest in farming, construction, and grounds-care equipment — a quality that was most evident in its Model B Tractors. Now, the Danbury Mint introduces The John Deere Desk Clock — a precision timepiece set in a replica of a 1948 Model B Tractor — John Deere's most popular model of all time.

Amazingly detailed, authentic in every way.

This exceptional cold-cast porcelain reproduction — ideal for display on any desk, table, mantle or bookcase — features all the design details that made the legendary tractor great. The clock, ingeniously set into the tractor's "drive" wheel, has a genuine quartz movement powered by a 1.5V battery (included). In the center of the clock's face, the famous John Deere Quality Farm Equipment logo has been faithfully reproduced. The wheel can be removed easily to change the battery or to set the time.

Attractively priced at only $65.

The John Deere Desk Clock, officially authorized by Deere & Company, is available exclusively from the Danbury Mint, and can be purchased at the attractive price of $65, payable in two convenient monthly installments of only $32.50 (plus a total of $8 for shipping and handling). Your satisfaction is guaranteed. If you are not completely satisfied with your clock, you can return it within 30 days for replacement or refund. Return your Reservation Application today!

Chantal Legrand reveals:

How I lost 54 pounds without dieting or medication in less than 6 weeks!

(and since I haven't gained a single ounce back!)

Everyone in my family tends to gain weight easily. And I'm certainly no exception to that rule!

I left my parents' home at the age of 22 and moved into a studio apartment near work. As I was living alone for the first time, I paid close attention to what I was eating. Especially because of the effects of my mother's good cooking were starting to appear on my figure! At home, I made light meals along the lines of yogurt, apples and grains. From time to time, I'd make a treat, such as when friends came over for dinner. Still, I was able to maintain my ideal weight.

The tendency to gain weight got hold of me!

I got married at 25, and was expecting my first child a year later... I was always hungry and so, to soothe my conscience, I'd say "Go ahead, you're eating for two now!" So I'd cook elaborate meals for my husband and, because he came home for lunch during the week, we were having two large meals a day.

Of course, after eating at that pace, I began to gain weight! Even after my child was born, I continued to gain instead of losing weight -- at a rate of about 2 pounds each month.

This turn of events didn't put me in a particularly good mood, and my husband kept telling me "Just eat less if gaining weight upsets you so much." But how can someone resist such delicious good food? I couldn't persuade myself to cut back. And because I was staying at home to care for my little girl, I was constantly tempted to snack between meals. A cookie here, a bit of cheese there. And I continued to gain weight.

Then I started trying everything, except...

Discouraged, I started trying all the tricks, appetite suppressants, creams, diets and medications. Fads came and went and I had spent a fortune with no result. Sometimes I managed to lose 5-6 pounds, but after having stopped, I would gain back what I had lost, and sometimes even more. The situation was almost comical.

The situation stopped being funny when I reached the shocking weight of 174 pounds (I'm 5'2")—more than pleasantly plump. I was depressed and I didn't know how to lose the excess weight that was spoiling my life...

I wanted to try this famous weight-loss plan that everyone is talking about...

I had read surprising articles in many newspapers about a plan that really helped people lose weight who hadn't had any success before. I read the story of a young woman in whom I recognized a little bit of myself. Just like me, she had gained a lot of weight during and after pregnancy. But thanks to this plan, she managed to lose 35 pounds in 4 weeks...

However, as I was pretty skeptical of all these kinds of weight-loss plans and treatments, I only half-believed that this plan would work. In any event, I wasn't risking anything by trying the plan, because I would be refunded if I didn't get the results I wanted.

So I ordered the weight-loss plan. I was so surprised when I received the package! It was as if this plant extracts weight-loss plan was created especially for me! I could lose weight while still eating the way I wanted. Fantastic! I couldn't see myself following a strict diet while ... I can hardly believe that I looked like this not too long ago. Today I hardly recognize myself."

After the first day, I lost 2 pounds!

The next day I started the 16-plant weight-loss plan. It was on my daughter's birthday—she was two years old—and we had invited some friends over for lunch. I had prepared a delicious meal and, for dessert, a huge cream cake. I wasn't about to deprive myself of all that! So I ate along with the others, and yet, when I weighed myself the next day on the bathroom scale, I had lost 2 pounds! It was unbelievable! And very encouraging!

The way my weight loss corresponded to the woman's story in the newspaper article was very surprising! She had said that she lost 8 to 10 pounds per week, on average, and that was the case for me!

Already 9 pounds in one short week

I was stunned to see how I'd lost weight so quickly. So I followed the weight-loss plan very carefully... It was very simple: every morning, afternoon and evening, I took the amount indicated of plant macerated before each meal, and then I ate normally and went about my normal daily routine.

The pounds started to melt away and in one week, I lost more than 9 pounds. And even better, because I didn't have to change my habits, I could eat anything I wanted.

(Please, turn over...)

"After I had lost more than 54 pounds due to this natural treatment and without starving at all, it was one of the best moments in my life..."

cooking normally for my family. I had some trouble believing — it seemed really too good to be true!

My husband was thrilled to see me lose weight so quickly!

After that, everything happened quickly. I weighed myself every two days and each time I saw that I was still losing weight! Furthermore, my clothes were starting to really be too big. Two weeks later, I had reached 154 pounds. My husband couldn't believe his eyes. He saw me eat normally every day and yet he could see the weight loss for himself! I showed him my "secret" and he thought it was just extraordinary.

The third week, I lost no less than 13 pounds!

That's the week when I lost the most weight. I couldn't get over it. What's more, because I wasn't on a diet, I was still in great shape! I wasn't tired from losing all that weight. Quite the opposite, I felt invigorated!

I continued to follow the weight-loss plan steadily. The hardest part was those last few pounds. But after only 6 weeks, I had reached the weight that I wanted—that is, 120 pounds. I had lost 54 pounds in a month and a half.

For me, this was a miracle!

The first person to be thrilled with these results was my husband. He's taken a renewed romantic interest in me... He often takes me in his arms and shows me how much he loves my body. He's at least as proud of my accomplishments as I am.

As far as I'm concerned, I've overcome a hardship and regained a certain zest for life. I often catch myself humming happily when I'm working around the house. It's been quite a long time since that's happened to me!

And even more surprising is the fact that I haven't regained a single ounce since starting the weight-loss plan. My weight has stabilized at what really is my ideal weight of 120 pounds. And I can still eat whatever I want without any danger of gaining the weight back.

It's possible for you to lose 8 to 10 pounds per week!

By following the simple instructions for the weight-loss plan, just as I did, you will start to lose weight immediately. You could lose 8 to 10 pounds per week, easily, just until you attain your ideal weight. And you won't gain the weight back afterwards, because your weight will have reached its equilibrium. You'll remain thin, and no one will believe you ever had any problem with your weight before. You'll be proud of your figure and you'll see how that improves your overall mood. You'll be more joyful, more sure of yourself—like you're ready to climb mountains!

And you won't suffer from any of the "snacking emergencies" that are the number one enemy of people obsessed with dieting. There's really a new life that begins when you're thin.

Chantal Legrand ■

Here are the 16 plants that make you lose weight.

"some people have lost 13 pounds the first week"

Question: How can some plants help people lose weight while they still eat normally?

Answer: Recent experiments have shown that the extract of the 16 plants, when combined together, can reverse the effect of calories. In other words, instead of transforming calories into fat, the calories are instead consumed and eliminated by natural means. This combination of plant extracts constitutes a weight-loss plan that facilitates what is probably the fastest weight loss ever observed from an entirely natural treatment.

Question: Who should use this 16-plant weight-loss plan?

Answer: Anyone who has a real weight problem—10 pounds or more to lose—and who has tried to lose weight with diets or who haven't received stable results with medication or other treatments. The plan is also suitable for anyone who cannot—or does not want to—stop eating normally.

Question: Do people lose weight quickly?

Answer: In principle, yes, very quickly. In the first 2 or 3 weeks, you can obtain significant weight loss. Very often, people lose 9 to 13 pounds in the first week.

Question: How does the plan work? Does it require a lot of willpower?

Answer: The complete weight-loss plan consists of two vials of plant macerat. Before each meal, mix one drop of extract for every 2 pounds you want to lose in a large glass of water. For example, if you are 5'3", your ideal weight is 110 pounds. If you weigh 140 pounds and you want to lose 30 pounds, drink 15 drops of each vial with a large glass of water before breakfast, lunch and dinner.

As you'll see, unlike other methods or diets you might have tried, you can continue to eat normally. There are no restrictions, and because of this, failure to achieve and maintain your desired weight is practically impossible. In effect, this weight-loss plan requires

- No special effort
- No dieting
- No strenuous exercise

Question: What plants are used?

Answer: The weight-loss plant is composed of the extracts of 16 different plants, each with their own specific effects. In other words, each affects different part of the body. Some are diuretics while others, such as cardamom, act on the body's reserves of stored fat, transforming them into energizing sugars.

Question: What evidence proves that I'll maintain my ideal weight after having lost the excess pounds?

Answer: As you've seen for yourself, as soon as you stop a diet or stop taking weight-loss medication, the lost pounds come back very quickly. But with this weight-loss plan, the process is reversed. Not only will you lose weight, but you'll gently change your metabolism. Any worries about regaining lost weight evaporate when you realize that your body's ability to process and transform calories. You'll have the metabolism of one of those people who can eat all they want without gaining an ounce.

If you have 10, 20, 30 or even 40 pounds to lose, you can be assured of reaching your ideal with this revolutionary weight-loss plan. You'll have a balanced metabolism, a figure you're proud of, and a new sense of happiness with life. All this is guaranteed, or you have nothing to pay.

WEIGHT LOSS GUARANTEED (or money back): If you don't lose between 20lbs and 30lbs within 30 days after receipt, return the vials with the plant extracts—even if they are empty—for a prompt and full refund of your order. No questions. No conditions.

IMPORTANT: During this introductory offer our supply is limited. The laboratory producing this weight-loss plan based on 16 plant extracts will take at least three weeks for the next delivery.
